Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1628624	The victim states that when he returned from work, his girlfriend (OF), became upset and started going through his phone. The OF observed where the mother of the victim`s children had sent him an earlier message and became enraged. When the VI asked for his phone back, the OF hit the VI in the left side of the face with it, then started punching him with a closed fist. The OF punched the VI approximately 8 to 9 times, then started throwing things. That`s when the VI left the house and called police. When officers arrived, the VI briefed us as to what happened and stated that he didn`t want to press charges, he just wanted her to leave. When I approached the OF and asked what happened, she stated nothing and that it was difficult to explain. The OF added that she didn`t know why she needed to explain, because I already knew. When questioned, the OF admitted to hitting the VI. The OF agreed to go home and not come back. I did not see any signs of physical abuse to the VI, but the house was in shambles where the OF had been throwing things.		TOOLEY, J. W.
