LW 1627839 Intimidation	Officers met with the involved parties of a domestic incident at their home. The female reporter stated that she was on the phone in the bedroom when her husband came in and tried to `pick her up`. The RP stated that her husband was on a power trip and is always pushing her around; she advised that she wasn't gonna take it and didn't let him pick her up. The RP didn't want to pursue any type of charges, she just wanted us to talk to her husband. The husband told officers that he went in the bedroom to watch tv. The husband stated that his wife, who was in the bedroom on the phone, started arguing with him when he went in the bedroom. The husband stated that the entire altercation was a verbal argument. Fuller, Misty Shea (W F, 33) VICTIM of Intimidation (C), at 508 Maxwell Ave, Evansville, IN, between 20:40, 12/14/2016 and 20:44, 12/14/2016. Reported: 12/14/2016. Officers were dispatched to 508 Maxwell Avenue in regards to an intimidation report. VI #1, Misty Fuller (Bowen) and VI #2, Stephen Fenwick, advised the offender chased them with a hammer. The offender is the husband of Fuller. Previously, officers were dispatched to 501 Maxwell Avenue in regards to a family dispute. Fuller stated the offender was inside their residence and she wanted him to leave. Officers explained to Fuller that they could not force the offender to leave because they were legally married and lived at the residence together. Fuller told officers that she just wanted them present to possibly sway the offender into leaving the residence. Fuller wanted to go into the home and ask the offender to leave while officers stood with her. However, Fuller went into the home and shut the door behind her so officers were not aware of what was going on inside the home. After a few minutes of arguing and hearing a baby cry, officers knocked on the door without a response. Officers knocked again and Fuller eventually walked outside from the back of the residence with her infant child in her arms. Fuller told officers that the offender was gathering his belongings and was preparing to leave. Fuller said she was going to stay with the neighbors at 508 Maxwell Avenue until the offender left. While waiting for the offender to leave, Fuller returned to the home. The offender chased Fuller out of the home with a hammer. He chased her across the street and into the yard of 508 Maxwell Avenue. Fenwick was standing in the yard of 508 Maxwell Avenue. He stated the offender also came after him with the hammer. Fuller was adamant that her father was on his way to the residence and he was going to address the situation with the offender. Officers asked Fuller to consider staying the night at another location this evening and to apply for a protective order against the offender in the morning so she could get him evicted. Fenwick was also instructed to follow up with the Prosecutor`s Office to pursue charges. Officer knocked on the front door of 501 Maxwell Avenue to speak with the offender. There were lights on inside the residence but there was no answer.	BREWER, J. W.
