	Victim called 911 this afternoon for a battery report, she was supposed to be waiting in the lobby at Grandview Towers but didn`t need an ambulance. Before officers arrived she called back and said she needed an ambulance to meet her in the lobby. When officers arrived the victim wasn`t in the lobby so we went to her apartment to see if she was there. When we got there we found her door ajar and could hear her yelling at someone inside, we knocked and pushed the door open where we found the victim in the living room and the suspect in the bedroom. The victim seemed very confused and angry, she kept accusing the suspect of stealing her pills. She also told us she wanted him out of her apartment, he voluntarily packed his stuff and agreed to leave. Victim states last night at 11pm the suspect choked her and hit her, she had no signs of injury that we could see. AMR arrived on scene and talked with her, she refused treatment. and signed the refusal for AMR. AMR also saw no signs of injury.

LW 1627592 Battery - Class A Misdemeanor [am]	from the vehicle and placed him into double locked handcuffs. Ofc Campbell arrived on scene to assist with the stop. Ofc Cambell and I searched the vehicle incident to arrest. I discovered a burnt cigar end filled with a green leafy substance sitting on top of the center console. From my training and experience, I knew this substance to be marijuana. Officers ran the offender`s drivers status through BMV/NCIC and it showed he had never received a license. The offender was cited and released (UTT-8220109309). Malone, Vanity Kane (B F, 31) VICTIM of Battery - Class A Misdemeanor [am] (C), at 7711 Circle Front Ct, Evansville, IN, between 21:10, 12/11/2016 and 21:32, 12/11/2016. Reported: 12/11/2016. Officer was dispatched to 7711 Circle Front Ct in reference to a battery that had occurred. Upon arriving I spoke with the V-V Malone. Malone said that she is the caregiver for OF-A.A. OF-A.A. has to have 24 hrs supervision. Tonight OF-A.A. was in the kitchen heating up some food when Malone told him that it was too late and that he couldn`t fix the food. OF-A.A. became upset and at some point threw a dinner plate in the direction of Malone. Malone was hit in the forearm by the plate and it left a mark and some pain. I spoke with OF-A.A. who was in his room at the time of my arrival. OF-A.A. said that he had been fixing food when Malone told him that he couldn`t have anymore this evening. He said that Malone told him that if he fixed it that she would throw it in the trash. OF-A.A. then said he got mad and threw a plate. He said that he didn`t see it hit Malone but it could have. He said he only saw it hit the wall. OF-A.A. said that he called Chris Bradford (supervisor). He said that Bradford told him that since this is his home that he can eat whenever he wants. I advised OF-A.A. that the next time that there is a dispute it would be best to contact the Supervisor instead of doing anything violent. He agreed that he would. I then spoke with Malone and asked what was supposed to be done about OF-A.A. eating? She said that Chris said that he can eat whenever he wants and that OF-A.A. would be allowed to go ahead and finish fixing the food in question.		WILSON, M. R.

LW 1627594 Incident Rpt Misc	Evans, Mark Elliot (W M, 34) VICTIM of Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 401 N Burkhardt Rd, Evansville, IN, between 20:53, 12/11/2016 and 21:39, 12/11/2016. Reported: 12/11/2016. I was dispatched to the above location in reference to a Theft Report. On scene, I spoke to the victim, later identified as M. Evans. Evans stated he was shopping at the above location and checked out at a self-service check-out lane. Evans stated he paid for his purchases and optioned to receive $40.00 in cash back. Evans continued that he returned home and noticed that he had forgot to pick up the cash as he left. Evans called the store and they told him the store would be able to review the video but that he would need to contact the police before they could provide him with any information. I then spoke to a customer service manager and she provided me with a receipt for Evans transaction and the customer who used the same register after him. The customer service manager stated loss prevention had reviewed the security footage and determined that the next customer to use the register had taken the money and left the store without turning it in. The customer service manager advised me that the customer had used an EBT card and that it would be easy for them (Wal-Mart) to track the customer down and have her return the money. I then went to the loss prevention office and reviewed the video. In the video I watched as Evans bagged his items and the cash appeared in the bottom dispenser. Evans finishes bagging his items, takes his receipt, and leaves the store without recovering the cash from the dispenser bin. I then see the next customer, a white female (accompanied by a black male), walk up to the register and immediately take the cash that was in the dispenser and proceed to "ring up" her items, pay for them, then leave the store without turning in the money. Evans was given the case # and told that a detective may be in touch with him.		CONDIFF, M.
