LW 1700063 Disorderly Conduct [bm]	Society VICTIM of Disorderly Conduct [bm] (C), at 1121 Washington Ave, Evansville, IN, on 01/02/2017, 01:00. Reported: 01/02/2017. Officers were dispatched to the Time Out Lounge reference a male that struck a female and then refused to leave the business when asked. When I arrived the security was shoving the defendant out of the front doors. the defendant was struggling with security and yelling for someone inside. Officer Mckinney placed him in handcuffs while I spoke to the security and the female he allegedly struck. The female, despite being visibly upset and crying, said that he had not hit her. The defendant was being restrained by Officers Mckinney and Kennedy and continued yelling at the female despite being told to stop. When I informed the Officers of what the female had said, the handcuffs were removed. The business wanted the defendant barred for all of eternity and he was informed of that by Officer Kemmerer. He complained that the female had his keys, so I went to the vehicle she was in with her cousin and retrieved the defendants keys. The defendant was released and told to leave. He walked over to the patio area and stood in the street in front of the patio area. He began yelling at patrons of the business that were on the patio. As he stood there and yelled loudly at the patrons he was placed under arrest for disorderly conduct and transported to the VCCC.		KEMMERER, D. A.
