LW 1700638 Omvwi [am]	Society VICTIM of Omvwi [am] (C), at 1141 Millbrook Ct, Evansville, IN, between 22:35, 01/09/2017 and 22:40, 01/09/2017. Reported: 01/10/2017. I (Officer J. Brewer) was dispatched to 1141 Millbrook Court in regards to a motor vehicle accident with unknown injuries. Dispatch advised a car had rammed another car into a building. While enroute, another caller from 1146 Millbrook Court stated a drunk person had wrecked their vehicle into his car and his apartment. Upon arrival, I observed a silver 2009 Toyota Corolla crashed, facing south, into 1146 Millbrook Court with heavy rear end damage. The Toyota Corolla was owned by VI #1, Shannan Sathers. EFD was already on scene and stated the Toyota Corolla had been rear ended by a Jeep Wrangler and pushed into the apartment building. I located a red 2011 Jeep Wrangler Sport parked, facing north, in front of 1139 Millbrook Court. There was glass on the rear bumper and tire marks on the pavement leading to the Toyota Corolla. WI #1, Olivia Sease, approached EFD and me and said the offender had dropped a bag on her front steps. I checked the bag and located a brown wallet with the offenders identification, Brandon Everly. The bag also contained an unopened bottle of Maker`s Mark Whisky (200mL) and an unopened bottle of Orval Trappist Ale (11.2oz). Sease stated she was inside her apartment (1139 Millbrook Court) when she heard the accident. She ran outside and observed Everly pulling his Jeep forward from the Corolla. She didn`t think he would stop so she started yelling at him. Everly stopped, got out of the Jeep and started to look around. Sease asked, "Do you know what you just did?" Everly responded, "uh, uh, uh" and started to walk up to her apartment. Sease told Everly to stop as he approached. Everly told her, "I`m going inside to get my registration." Sease replied, "no you don`t live here." Everly told Sease that he lived on Wimbledon and she explained to him that it was the next street over. At that point, Everly walked toward Wimbledon Court. Sease advised Everly left the bag on her front steps at some point during their conversation. She also advised he was not wearing shoes. Officer E. Kitzinger and I knocked on the front door of 1143 Wimbledon Court. After a few moments, Everly answered the door. He was not wearing shoes. Officer E. Kitzinger asked Everly, "where is your Jeep at?" Everly responded, "yeah, it`s over there." Officer E. Kitzinger asked, "over where?" Everly replied, "yeah, it`s over there. I backed it into somebody." At that point, I placed Everly into double-locked handcuffs. Once in handcuffs Everly started crying and voluntarily stated, "I`ve got an alcohol problem, please." I read Everly his Miranda Warning. He acknowledged he understood his rights and nodded his head "yes" that he wanted to continue to speak with me. However, Everly refused to answer questions I asked. I asked Everly if he had any insurance on the Jeep. He started to answer and then declined because he didn`t want to talk about it. Afterward, he requested his lawyer. Everly had a prior conviction for operating without proof of insurance per Docket #: 82D05-1203-CM-01561. When contact was made with Everly he smelled heavily of the odor of alcoholic beverage, his eyes were red/watery, his face was red and his speech was slow. He was placed into the rear seat of my patrol car (1612) and transported to the VCCC. Due to previously fleeing the scene of the accident I postponed Standard Field Sobriety Tests (SFST`s) until arrival at the VCCC. Once on scene at the VCCC I asked Everly to participate in a series of SFST`s. Everly refused to participate in		BREWER, J. W.

Reported: 01/11/2017. Officer Condiff and myself were dispatched to Buffalo Wild Wings in reference to a hit and run. Upon arrival, I saw a Ford Mustang with several individuals standing around it. The Mustang was facing south in the row of spots directly in front of the store with damage to the driver side door. There was a silver colored paint left behind on the blue Mustang where the damage was. It was parked six spots down from the front row of spots to the store and in the most south end parking spot of the row (2 parking spots per row). I spoke with the victim, Jason Arvin, who advised his car had been hit and 2 females put information together to identify the suspect. I then spoke with the female that witnessed the incident. I identified her by her KY license as Courtney Embry. She explained that she saw a silver 4 door Grand Am or Grand Prix that was also facing south, pull out of its spot and pulled forward at an angle and struck the Mustang. She explained that it had a white plate and appeared as if the same type of plate as the victim vehicle (PC Passenger plate). The suspect then backed up, stepped out and assessed the damage on the Mustang. He then looked around as if to check if anyone saw and then got back in his vehicle and left, Embry explained. I asked what time this approximately happened and Embry stated around 00:15. I asked her where the suspect vehicle was and she pointed out the 4th spot from the front row spots in the north end spot in the row. She then explained she told the staff and while speaking with another female worker, they tied information together. After Embry explained what the suspect looked like, the bartender at Buffalo Wild Wings, Mackenzie Pruiett was able to identify the suspect. She said he currently works at Biaggi's and currently comes in and she serves him. She pulled his credit card receipt from the night of the incident and then pulled him up on Facebook. Pruiett then showed Embry a photo of Nulton and Embry confirmed it was him that hit the vehicle and left. They stated he had a black "chef style" shirt on with a white bandanna on his head and both stated the same description.		DELANO, J. A.
