LW 1702136	Wallis, Timmyra Rena (B F, 30) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief [bm] (C), at 5428 Carriage Dr, Evansville, IN, between 11:00, 01/29/2017 and 11:04, 01/29/2017. Reported: 01/29/2017. The victim reported that she lives with the offender and they have a child together. She stated that they got into an argument this morning. In the course of the argument the offender punched holes in several of the doors. The lease for the apartment in the victims name and she is responsible for paying for the damages that the offender caused. The victim did state that the offender has lived there for quite a while and he has given her cash to pay bills. The victim further stated that the offender took their child and ran out of the apartment. The child was not properly dressed for the weather (it was lightly snowing). The victim said that the offender brought the child back shortly there after, but she stated that his actions were irrational and she is concerned about that in regards to the child. When I inquired as to whether there was physical contact the victim initially stated no. She then said that he had pushed her but she related that it was more incidental contact as opposed to an intentional battery. She stated that she was not injured. I observed no injuries and she did not wish to pursue a battery charge. She stated that she did wish to obtain a protective order in regards to the child because of the offenders irrational behavior. She was advised of the process to complete in order to pursue misdemeanor charges, and where to go to get a protective order.		CLARK, S. Reported: 01/29/2017. Officers were dispatched to 125 E Riverside Dr on a subject with a gun. Caller advised that suspect had shown up at her house making threats. She said that he displayed a hand gun while he was making the threats. Victim said that the gun was a black semi automatic weapon. Officer Phelps located the suspect a short time later at Judson and Taylor Ave. The suspect was not in possession of a gun. Suspect advised that he had gone over to victims house to tell her to stop texting him about a gun charge that her son had been charged with. He advised that she was trying to blame him for having the gun. Suspect was told that he was barred / banned from her address at 125 E Riverside Dr. We also barred/ banned victim from suspects residence.		BAGBY, R. W.
LW 1702142 Burglary Of A Dwelling	Buchenberger, Lisa Ann (W F, 53) VICTIM of Burglary Of A Dwelling (C), at 1109 S Frederick St, Evansville, IN, between 17:00, 01/28/2017 and 13:01, 01/29/2017. Reported: 01/29/2017. The victim is in the process of moving out. Sometime during the night of the 28th someone was able to get in the house and take items and tore the wall mounted thermostat off the wall. No sign of forced entry.		HUDDLESTON, S.
LW 1702144 Battery- Hff Domestic [am]	Pitt, Brittany Dawn (W F, 27) VICTIM of Battery- Hff Domestic [am] (C), at 5012 Carriage Ct, Evansville, IN, between 12:55, 01/29/2017 and 13:24, 01/29/2017. Reported: 01/29/2017. When I, Pylant, arrived on scene, I knocked on the front door of the target address, but no one answered. I observed fresh splatters of blood on the middle and upper portions of the front door. I then knocked on the callers front door to speak with her. The caller lives immediately next door to the target address. The caller advised that the victim and offender have been fighting for the last thirty-minutes. Things were being thrown around and she could hear arguing. Prior to our arrival, the victim had confronted the caller, blaming her for getting her evicted and calling police. During their confrontation, the offender came over, trying to get the victim to leave and stop harassing the caller. Eventually, the offender left, because he knew we were coming. While speaking with the caller, Off. Current arrived to assist. I knocked on the front door of the target address again, announced police, and the victim finally answered. The victim was crying and screaming, and yelling at officers because we allowed her to get beat up all night. Officers continued talking to the victim, trying to get her to calm down. I observed that the victims fingers were		PYLANT, R. E.

Current advised that there was blood on the upper left stair way hall wall and several things were knocked over, damaged, and torn from the walls. The victim was extremely belligerent and uncooperative with officers, as well as appearing to be under the influence. When asked what happened, or who did this to her, the victim stated that she wasn't a snitch and wasn't telling. I could not get a name from her, but knew who the offender might be, due to recent dealings with him the previous night. Moreover, when I showed a picture of the offender to the caller, she confirmed that he was the one who lived at the residence and was at her door earlier. The victim also complained of pain to her arm and stated that she may need medical assistance. AMR (truck# 2136) was called and arrived a few minutes later. The victim agreed to go to the hospital and get checked out. The victim continued crying, stating she was tired of getting beat up and did not want to come back to the apartment, for fear of retaliation. When I asked if she would go Albion after the hospital, the victim agreed. Albion was called and arrangements were made. When I again tried to get the facts of what happened to her, she would not give me the name of the offender, nor did she want to press charges. The victim was then given her case number and transported to St. Mary's. Crime Scene was called for photos.		MERRISS, T. L.

Reported: 01/29/2017. Hudson advised that her boyfriend had been staying with her for approximately 3 weeks or so. She stated that due to him causing problems, she told him to move out Monday. She told him to take only his property and move out. Her boyfriend took her television and several other things that belonged to her. She eventually got them back but because he didn't really have anywhere to stay she allowed him to stay the night last night. She went to work this morning and he called her asking for money. When she told him she didn't have the money to give him, he asked to use her vehicle. She again told him no and he told that if she wouldn't let him use her vehicle that he was going to break all of her property. She stated she could hear him breaking items over the phone. Hudson advised that she eventually came home from work and when she walked in the door she saw her boyfriend sitting on the couch. She asked him several times to leave but he refused to do so. She advised that she had a friend with her when she got home and she told Hudson she was going to call the police. Her boyfriend told her that he didn't care who she was calling that he would drop them and drop her for this. He then told her that he would hurt her physically if the cops came. He told her that once police arrived, he would hit her. She stated that she continued to grab his property and walk to the door to put his property outside. When she got to the door, her boyfriend shoved her outside. She then waited for officers to arrive. The boyfriend was gone when officers arrived on scene.		SEBORIS, S. N.
