| LW 1702174 Theft All Other | Bittner, Russell Lee (W M, 55) VICTIM of Theft All Other (C), at 2913 N Fourth Ave, Evansville, IN, between 06:00, 01/30/2017 and 06:10, 01/30/2017. Reported: 01/30/2017. Mr. Bittner was cleaning the parking lot of the Neighborhood Walmart. He was walking behind the suspects car as he was trying to pull start his blower. After he started the blower he turned around to see a white female pick up something from behind the car. At this time he began searching for his cell phone and he was unable to locate the phone. Mr. Bittner then went into Wal-mart and tried to locate the female but was unable to find her. Mr. Bittner did see her exiting the store and did make contact with the female. She denied finding the phone. Mr. Bittner then took a picture of her license plate. Indiana Plate 640LIW. In the meantime Mr. Bittner had called his wife using a friends phone. The wife, used the find my iphone app and determined the phone was inside 2913 North Fourth Avenue. This is also the location the license plate returned. During this time I had located a phone number for the suspects husband. I called that number but there was no answer. About 15 minutes later the suspects husband called back. He contacted the suspect and she returned home. I walked inside the house with the suspect and she grabbed the phone which was laying on the coffee table. The phone was not plugged into any other device. I asked her why she didnt return the cell phone this morning when the guy asked her abut it. She stated it was dark outside and he was pretty demanding and scared her. She said she was going to turn it in later today because she was in a hurry this morning. When asked about turning it into Walmart she didnt have a reason as to why she didnt turn it in to the store. The phone was returned to Mr. Bittner but he still want to press charges. I tried to advise him of the difficulties that would pose. | | HACKWORTH, E. |

| | 0630 today, that his business was burglarized and a vehicle was stolen. Officer Bond spoke with David Kolley who is an employee of Mills Body Shop. Kolley advised Officer Bond that he came to work this morning around 0630 and noticed a few things to be out of place. Kolley stated he always turns the outside lights on after work and when he came in this morning the lights were off. Kolley stated he began to look at the lights and realized that they had been unscrewed enough not to generate electricity into the bulb. Kolley stated he then went inside and found a key on the floor in the office area. He compared the key to his business key and found that it matched the door to enter the business. Kolley stated that another employee, Karen Ashley, had her desk locked and it had been broken into but appeared to have nothing missing. Kolley then went outside and found a black 2002 Chevy S10 with CM plate RFB170 had been taken from the back lot. We asked Kolley if the keys to the vehicle were missing but he stated they were not. The truck was parked behind a locked fence and Kolley stated he noticed that the padlock on the fence had been put on a different way than the way the Kolley usually puts it on. Finally, Kolley found 85 dollars to be missing out of the safe under the front desk. There appears to be no forced entry into the business. Stolen Vehicle: 2002 Black Chevy S10 CM Plate RFB170 Vin: 1GCDT13W22K173363 | | |
