LW 1700554 Criminal Mischief [bm]	Brians Concrete Supplies VICTIM of Criminal Mischief [bm] (C), at 1713 W Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 16:00, 01/06/2017 and 05:57, 01/09/2017. Reported: 01/09/2017. I was dispatched to 1713 W. Franklin St., Brian`s Concrete Supplies, in reference to a criminal mischief report or attempted burglary. I arrive and met with the reporter/employee, Michael Morris. Morris said he arrived at work around 0600 and observed a screen to one of the windows had been cut because it was flapping in the wind. Morris said he noticed the sliding window was slightly open. He said he entered the business and went into the office where the window is located. He said he doesn`t think anyone made entry due to a table right inside the window having many things on it and none of those items being disturbed. I gave Morris the case number and explained how to add information to the report if they find anything missing. Morris said employees left the office 010616 at 1600 hours.		SMITH, K. E.

Officers met with him. The driver stated that two young (about 18y/o) black males, one wearing a red hoodie and the other wearing a white hoodie, failed to pay a $20.00 dollar fare. The driver stated that they ran into an apartment building at Village Green Apartments. The building they ran into contained eight apartments (2608-2622 all even numbers), and the driver had no idea which one. Officers attempted to make contact with each apartment, but were only able to rule out one apartment, 2608. The attempts at the other seven returned no answer. The driver was given a case number.		WOLF, D. C.
LW 1700638 Omvwi [am]	Society VICTIM of Omvwi [am] (C), at 1141 Millbrook Ct, Evansville, IN, between 22:35, 01/09/2017 and 22:40, 01/09/2017. Reported: 01/10/2017. I (Officer J. Brewer) was dispatched to 1141 Millbrook Court in regards to a motor vehicle accident with unknown injuries. Dispatch advised a car had rammed another car into a building. While enroute, another caller from 1146 Millbrook Court stated a drunk person had wrecked their vehicle into his car and his apartment. Upon arrival, I observed a silver 2009 Toyota Corolla crashed, facing south, into 1146 Millbrook Court with heavy rear end damage. The Toyota Corolla was owned by VI #1, Shannan Sathers. EFD was already on scene and stated the Toyota Corolla had been rear ended by a Jeep Wrangler and pushed into the apartment building. I located a red 2011 Jeep Wrangler Sport parked, facing north, in front of 1139 Millbrook Court. There was glass on the rear bumper and tire marks on the pavement leading to the Toyota Corolla. WI #1, Olivia Sease, approached EFD and me and said the offender had dropped a bag on her front steps. I checked the bag and located a brown wallet with the offenders identification. The bag also contained an unopened bottle of Maker's Mark Whisky (200mL) and an unopened bottle of Orval Trappist Ale (11.2oz). Sease stated she was inside her apartment when she heard the accident. She ran outside and observed Everly pulling his Jeep forward from the Corolla. She didn't think he would stop so she started yelling at him. Everly stopped, got out of the Jeep and started to look around. Sease asked, "Do you know what you just did?" Everly responded, "uh, uh, uh" and started to walk up to her apartment. Sease told Everly to stop as he approached. Everly told		BREWER, J. W.

Everly told Sease that he lived on Wimbledon and she explained to him that it was the next street over. At that point, Everly walked toward Wimbledon Court. Sease advised Everly left the bag on her front steps at some point during their conversation. She also advised he was not wearing shoes. Officer E. Kitzinger and I knocked on the front door of Wimbledon Court. After a few moments, Everly answered the door. He was not wearing shoes. Officer E. Kitzinger asked Everly, "where is your Jeep at?" Everly responded, "yeah, it's over there." Officer E. Kitzinger asked, "over where?" Everly replied, "yeah, it's over there. I backed it into somebody." At that point, I placed Everly into double-locked handcuffs. Once in handcuffs Everly started crying and voluntarily stated, "I've got an alcohol problem, please." I read Everly his Miranda Warning. He acknowledged he understood his rights and nodded his head "yes" that he wanted to continue to speak with me. However, Everly refused to answer questions I asked. I asked Everly if he had any insurance on the Jeep. He started to answer and then declined because he didn't want to talk about it. Afterward, he requested his lawyer. Everly had a prior conviction for operating without proof of insurance per Docket #: 82D05-1203-CM-01561. When contact was made with Everly he smelled heavily of the odor of alcoholic beverage, his eyes were red/watery, his face was red and his speech was slow. He was placed into the rear seat of my patrol car (1612) and transported to the VCCC. Due to previously fleeing the scene of the accident I postponed Standard Field Sobriety Tests (SFST's) until arrival at the VCCC. Once on scene at the VCCC I asked Everly to participate in a series of SFST's. Everly refused to participate in SFST's multiple times. Officer D. Betz, a certified chemical test operator, read Everly Indiana Implied Consent. Everly refused a chemical test at the VCCC at 23:32 on certified instrument number 010861. Everly's vehicle was towed from the scene via Tri-State Towing. The apartment building at 1146 Millbrook Court received damage to the downspouts and there was a crack in the brick. Sather's vehicle sustained heavy front end and rear end damage. No injuries were reported. An accident report was completed (See Accident #: 17-00638). Everly had a previous conviction for OMVWI on 4/28/2009 per Docket #: 82D05-0811-CM-07835. Belcher, Shelly A. (W F, 37) VICTIM of Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 2512 Sherman St, Evansville, IN, on 01/09/2017, 23:52. Reported: 01/10/2017. The victim stated that she and her ex-husband, the suspect, have been attempting to reconcile and that he has been living at her residence for the past two months. Tonight, he arrived home about 2330 hrs and was intoxicated. The victim told him that she was tired of his drinking and wanted him to leave. He became irate. In the presence of their 8 year old daughter, he picked up the microwave oven from the counter and threw it down the stairs. He then swiped across the top of the refrigerator; knocking numerous items onto the floor including a ceramic piggy bank which shattered. After he went out the front door, she locked it. He broke the window out of the storm door attempting to get back in. As he reentered the residence, he kicked the window frame across the living room. The window impacted the wall and damaged the dry wall. The victim was visibly upset and in fear for her safety and that of her 8 year old daughter. The suspect was walking away from the residence as officer arrived. He admitted that he had been drinking and was going to stay at his grandmothers house because he and his ex-wife had been arguing. Officer observed the damage to the residence. The victim just wanted the suspect to leave. The victim was provided a case number and telephone number to the record's dept. She was advised to file for a protective order as well	EBERHARD, E. D.
