LW 1701064 Theft All Other < $750	Liquor Locker-weinbach VICTIM of Theft All Other < $750 (C), at 300 N Weinbach Ave, Evansville, IN, between 00:26, 01/15/2017 and 00:35, 01/15/2017. Reported: 01/15/2017. Officers were dispatched to Liquor Locker in reference to a theft that had occurred shortly before. Upon arrival, I spoke with one of the employees (LC) and he advised that around approximately 0035 hours, a black male walked in and grabbed 2 bottles of alcohol and ran back out of the store. LC chased the male for a brief moment but then stopped for his safety. He described him as a black male wearing all black and had a medium size afro. He also stated he was around 5`09". After going back and reviewing the camera footage, the description was accurate except we could also see that the male had a gray hood sticking out of the black jacket. Also while reviewing the camera footage with another employee (JM), it was found that another black male wearing all black and a baseball hat had also come in a few moments earlier. This suspect took one box containing a bottle of alcohol and shoved it under his sweat shirt and then walked out. Neither employee saw this suspect so there was no further information. While we were taking information for our report, a taxi driver came back to the store and explained he had drove one of the suspects to that location and then was told to drop him off at a different location after the liquor store. He confirmed it was the suspect with the afro that he had picked up. This suspect also did not pay his $33 cab fee. Cab driver did not want a report.		CONDIFF, M. V.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
Theft	to a Burglary Report. When I arrived, I spoke with the resident (McAtee) who stated that she had been in bed when she heard a loud crash around 1030 hrs. When she got up to investigate she noticed several items missing from the front room of her house. McAtee noticed both her personal and work laptops missing along with her personal iPhone6 and her work iPhone5 were now gone. Later McAtee noticed a small external hard drive was also missing. There were no signs of forced entry to neither the front door or back door. McAtee stated she may have unintentionally left the back door open. The "crash" apparently came from when the suspect(s) were taking the computers and several desk items fell to the floor as they were disconnecting the devices. No suspect info at this time. McAtee is the only resident at this address and rarely has visitors. The neighbor to the south stated he was at church around the time the Burglary occurred so he had no information. McAtee was given a case number and instructed to obtain serial numbers for all of her missing items and how to add them to the report by calling Records.
