LW 1701210 Theft All Other < $750	Coonfield, Shelena Katarena (W F, 29) VICTIM of Theft All Other < $750 (C), at 1936 S Walnut Ln, Evansville, IN, between 17:00, 12/24/2016 and 07:56, 01/17/2017. Reported: 01/17/2017. Victim #1 used to live at 1936 S Walnut Lane. Her parents live across the street at 1937 S Walnut lane. The victim moved in July to 529 S Kerth. Before the victim moved she met the new renters/ suspect. The victim has the phone number and first name of the suspect. When the victim did not receive her Christmas gifts sent from various families from out of town, she called the suspect who now lives at 1926 S Walnut Lane. The victim asked the suspect if the gifts had mistakenly been shipped to the house on 1936 S Walnut lane. The suspect told the victim she had not received any packages. The victim told the suspect if she did receive any of those packages she could just walk them across the street to her parents who live at 1937 S Walnut lane. The victim contacted the family members and verified the gifts had been sent to 1936 S Walnut Lane. Victim contacted Fed Ex and US postal service to see where the gifts had been delivered. The witness, victims father, saw one of the people at 1936 S Walnut lane take the trash out yesterday and put a box in the trash with no lid. He could see knitted items in the trash clearly from across the street. The victim arrived on scene and verified the name on the box and items. When I arrived it was clear that a cardboard box was in the trash with the name of the victims grandmother on it and hand knitted items her grandmother had sent as Christmas gifts in the trash. I called Crime scene Det. to take photos of the items. The items were given to the victim. That box was one of three such boxes sent to the address of 1936 S Walnut Lane, intended for the victim, that she never received. The other boxes from other family members included gift cards, kids clothes, toys etc. The victim was instructed to contact the other family members (victims) who sent packages and list the contents of those packages. The victim was told to then contact Police Records and detail the items to update the report. I knocked on the door at 1936 S Walnut Lane. Nobody answered the door.		HESSLER, B. D.
