	Officers were dispatched to 3305 Pollack Ave to take a theft report. When we arrived, we spoke with the apartment manager, Roxanne Berendes. Berendes stated that this morning she observed damage to a coin operated washing machine in which money had been taken. She advised Officers that the door to access the washing machine remains locked at all times and only residence of the apartment complex have a key to access the machines. Officers observed damage to one of the machines on the area where the coins are deposited. It appears that the side of the machine had been pried open which allowed access to the coins that had already been deposited into the machine. Berendes was unable to verify how much money was taken. While still on scene, I was advised by James Morris, who works for the coin machine company, that there was damage to 4 more of the machines. He stated that the locks had been pried off the other machines and that he would have to redrill and replace the locks to make the machines operable. There appears to be no forced entry into the building.
