Dispatch advised a dark colored passenger car struck a small gray passenger car that was parked. The suspect vehicle was possibly parked between 507 Maxwell Avenue and 509 Maxwell Avenue. Upon arrival, I located a black 2002 Chrysler 300 , parked between 501 Maxwell Avenue and 505 Maxwell Avenue with the driver door open. I also observed a trail of fluids on the roadway from the intersection of Stringtown Road/Maxwell Avenue to where the car was parked in the driveway next to 501 Maxwell Avenue. I walked up to the vehicle and made contact with the offender, Misty Fuller (Bowen). She was sitting in the driver seat of the vehicle with a cigarette in her hand. I observed her to have a small amount of blood on her forehead and the airbags to the vehicle had been deployed. I told Bowen to step out of the vehicle and placed her into double-locked handcuffs. Bowen smelled heavily of the odor of alcoholic beverage, had difficulty maintaining her balance and slurred her words when she spoke. When I placed her into handcuffs she attempted to turn around multiple times to face me and was argumentative. Once she was placed into double-locked handcuffs, I escorted her to my police car (1612) and placed her in the rear seat. She was argumentative throughout the entire process and made her body "dead weight" multiple times as I attempted to escort her to my police car.		BREWER, J. W.

The B/M then approached Crawford and stated that his "first intention was to beat your (Crawford`s) ass" but I`m gonna try to talk to you like a man. Crawford stated that he was not willing to discuss anything with the OF after threatening him and asked the OF to leave. The OF then stated "that`s ok, because you`re not always gonna be here at work" as if the OF was going to find Crawford outside of work and harm him. Crawford instructed his cashier to call 911 and Warfield and the OF left without further incident. Both Warfield and OF were no longer on scene when I arrived. Crawford wished to file a report as a precaution in case this becomes a regular event. While I was gathering information for the report, Warfield`s mother called the office to speak with Crawford about uniform withholdings in her check. Crawford attempted to explain but the conversation got heated. I got on the phone in an attempt to barred/banned Warfield from the business but she would not comply and hung up.		ROSS, K. R.
