Reported: 02/03/2017. Officers were dispatched to the above address in reference to a Domestic Violence Report. On scene, I spoke with the victim, later identified as C. Albert. Albert stated he and the suspect, later identified as K. Klessig, both live at the above address and have an infant child together. Albert stated he and Klessig were arguing earlier this evening and at some point Klessig scratched him on the chest. Albert advised Klessig was intoxicated and passed out after he left the residence to prevent the argument from escalating any further. I had Albert raise his shirt and noted that he had three scratch marks across his right chest that almost broke the skin. I told Albert that I would have to speak to Klessig to make sure she wasn't injured and to get her side of the story. We then went inside and I spoke to Klessig, Klessig stated that she and Albert were having sex, when Albert decided to "choke" her. Klessig stated she did not want to be choked during this particular session and scratched Albert to get him off her. As I was speaking to Klessig, I could not smell any alcoholic beverage and did not detect any signs of intoxication or impairment.		CONDIFF, M. V.

LW 1702510 Incident Rpt Misc	Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 1303 E Indiana St, Evansville, IN, on 02/03/2017, 06:45. Reported: 02/03/2017. No victims listed. I was dispatched to 1303 E Indiana reference a 13 year old that refused to go to school. Upon arrival I spoke with Stewart, who assumed the responsible adult role over the residence, stating that the mother(Monica Wilder-No additional info available at this time) of the children was not available at this time. He further stated that she had left at approx. 0400-0500 with a friend. Stewart resides here with the 17 year old daughter and was unable to get the 13 year old up to go to school. The mother had her cell phone turned off and was unavailable. Stewart contacted North Junior High attendance to notify them that the 13 year old was refusing to go to school and requested that Deputy Gilles be informed of the situation. Attendance stated that they would forward the information. Stewart states that the mother is usually home but had to leave today early due to appointments. There are four children under 18 living here and the oldest is home schooled with the others still in the public system. The living conditions were adequate and I explained to Stewart that the mother needs to make herself accessible if she is not going to be available on scene in the future. The 13 year old had missed the bus and continued to refuse to go to school. He remained at the residence under the responsibility of Stewart and the 17 year old sister. I contacted Gilles and provided him with this case number and the information related to this incident requesting that he follow up with this case. End		CARLILE, S. E.

LW 1702529 Criminal Mischief [bm]	Pretium Mortgage Comp. VICTIM of Criminal Mischief [bm] (C), at 2101 Washington Ave, Evansville, IN, between 11:00, 01/15/2017 and 10:25, 02/03/2017. Reported: 02/03/2017. The reporter called advising that someone had broken out two windows in the front door of a vacant house he has listed through the Pretium Mortgage Company. The reporter works for Statewide Realty and is the listing agent for the house. The Pretium Mortgage Company actually owns the home. Once the windows were broken, the suspect(s) then reached through the window and unlocked the door. In doing so, the suspect(s) cut himself on the glass and dripped blood throughout the house. I requested that the reporter call the actual owner of the property, to see if they would proceed with charges. The owner advised that they would not press charges and asked for a report only for insurance purposes. A report was completed and case number given to the reporter. Crime Scene was called at first, but given a disregard once it was established that no charges would be pressed.		PYLANT, R. E.
