LW 1706602 Fc Forgery	Williams, Whitney Rena (B F, 18) VICTIM of Fc Forgery (C), at 3816 Van Meter Ct, Evansville, IN, between 11:00, 03/01/2007 and 12:00, 03/21/2017. Reported: 03/27/2017. On 3/03/2017 Whitney went to the office of offender and offender told Whitney due to age of vehicle 1988 that Whitney could not get full coverage. Offender did not tell Whitney she could go to another insurance agent and get full coverage insurance. That day offender gave Whitney the Limit of Liability which Whitney did not know that she was being signed up for that plan, Whitney had a wreck on 3/06/17 and the car that hit Whitney did not have insurance. That lady made a claim on Whitney`s insurance that Whitney had not signed up for insurance policy with offender. Whitney thought she had liability that covered everything. Whitney has copies of the insurance paperwork shows Whitney`s signature which Whitney knows for sure that she did not sign. Whitney believes offender forged the entire policy and Whitney will bring in paperwork with her signature on them that she did not sign.		SNELLING, N. J.

LW	I was dispatched to this address in reference to a harassment in progress. When I arrived I spoke to the victim, identified as A. Pace. Pace advised that she has an active protective order against the suspect and this was verified. Pace stated that the suspect came over to her house to confront her about her giving her phone number to a male friend. Pace said she and the suspect have been separated for a while and he is the father of her son. Pace said the suspect got angry and said he would stay at her home all night until she gave him the guy's name and number. Pace said she was not going to give the suspect that information because she knew he was going to harass her new male friend and cause issues. Pace said she was able to get out of her residence and go next door to call us. Pace said while she was outside of the neighbors house the suspect ran toward her and pushed her causing her to fall into the neighbors trash cans. Pace said the suspect fled the scene after that. When I asked Pace if it hurt when the suspect pushed her she initially said yes, but then when I was explaining the battery charge to her she said it didn't hurt and she did not want to press any charges on the suspect. I then advised Pace that if I located the suspect I would take him to jail for the invasion of privacy and she again said she did not want him to go to jail for anything. Pace said she simply wanted a report for the incident and did not wish to proceed any further. A report was completed for the incident and a copy of the case number was provided to Pace.		HENDERSON, N.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1706668	Officers were dispatched to a theft in progress. The offender was located a short distance from the business. He was drinking from the stolen bottle of Vodka and stated he stole it. He also stated his name was `Larry Cornflake` and was highly intoxicated. He had a cut on his hand from an altercation he said he got into today while drinking.	Vanbibber, Gordon Michael (W M, 52) VICTIM of Theft All Other < $750 (C), at 1322 Parrett St, Evansville, IN, between 21:00, 03/27/2017 and 21:10, 03/27/2017. Reported: 03/27/2017.	DELANO, J. A.
Theft All Other < $750	Officers were dispatched to the above address in reference to a theft report. Upon our arrival we spoke with the victim. The victim stated that his neighbor from upstairs came over around 2100 hours on 03/27/2017 and asked him to pawn some items for her. He stated that he told her no and she asked for a drink of water. The victim stated that he retrieved the water. She then took a drink of the water and left promptly after quenching her thirst. He then noticed that the water was just a distraction devised to divert his attention while she stole his Ipad off of his bed. The victim stated that she attempted to track her down after he found that his Ipad had been stolen but could not find her anywhere. He then called several hours later to report the theft. I gave the victim a case number for the incident and advised him to retrieve the serial number and call records to update the report.
LW 1706664	Johnson, Karah Ann (W F, 18) VICTIM of Battery- Hff Domestic [am] (C), at 6101 Alexandria Dr, Evansville, IN, between 20:00, 03/27/2017 and 23:56, 03/27/2017. Reported: 03/28/2017.	The victim has an infant child with the offender and they dated for 4 years prior to splitting up. The victim advised that she has a protective order against the offender, but EPD records show that it has not been served.	LEWIS, J. L.
Battery- Hff Domestic [am]	On 03/27/17, the victim met with mutual friends at Lamasco Bar, unaware the offender would be there. She advised that the offender had been drinking and asked if she would take him home. Against her better judgment, the victim agreed to take the offender home.	While driving to the offender`s residence, the victim stated he became agitated with her and began to damage the vehicle. Officers observed the navigation screen had been damaged, the rear view and passenger side mirrors had been damaged as well.
	Once they arrived at the offender`s residence, the victim advised that the offender struck her several times to the right side of her face and mouth. Officers observed dried blood in her right ear and a cut to her bottom lip. The victim then advised the offender drug her by her hair into his bedroom where he told her, "if I can`t be with you, I`m going to kill you," She reported that the offender took her by the neck and "choked" her which she stated that she thought she was going to lose consciousness. The offender`s father then intervened which allowed her to escape to her vehicle.	As she drove home to get away from the offender, he followed her home in his black Dodge pickup truck. She stated that she made it home and then parked her vehicle. The offender then entered her vehicle and took the victim`s cellphone and car keys.
