| LW 1706980 Criminal Mischief [bm] | Caudel, Benton VICTIM of Criminal Mischief [bm] (C), at 2816 Madison Ave, Evansville, IN, between 10:00, 04/01/2017 and 10:47, 04/01/2017. Reported: 04/01/2017. At approximately 1047 hrs on 4/1/2017, I was dispatched to 2816 Madison Ave in reference to a Criminal Mischief Report. The RP (Mikesell) lives across the street and wanted to report it even though the residents of 2816 were not home and not aware there had been damage to their property. Mikesell was told by the resident at 2820 Madison Ave that two middle school aged mixed males hopped the fence on the north side of the property and threw objects at the windows to the house. The resident of 2820 did not wish to speak with officers because the last time they report similar crimes, his house was also targeted next. Mikesell went over to inspect the property at 2816 Madison Ave when she observed three windows shattered with objects like bricks and small stumps of wood lying nearby which were possibly used to cause the damage. I was unable to reach anyone at the residence. I was able to find mail for the listed VI and a case number was left in the mailbox. No suspects matching the description were located in the area. | | ROSS, K. R. |

Barnes, Yolanda Shantel (B F, 21) VICTIM of Battery - Domestic - Presence Of Child <16 (C), at 1321 Savannah Dr, Evansville, IN, between 23:30, 04/01/2017 and 23:45, 04/01/2017. Reported: 04/02/2017.

CONDIFF, M. V.

I was dispatched to the above address in reference to a Domestic Violence in Progress. On scene, I spoke to the victim (later identified as Y. Barnes) who stated that she and the suspect (identified as [redacted] s) had been arguing about [redacted] keeping their son while Barnes went to work. Barnes stated as she was getting ready for work, [redacted] had left the apartment only to return as she was leaving. Barnes continued that [redacted] became more upset when he noticed she had locked the door to the apartment.

Barnes stated [redacted] told her he would watch their son and as she got the keys out to get back inside the apartment, [redacted] "snatched" the keys from her hand. Barnes stated she called him a name and picked up her son and started to walk across the parking lot to drop their son off with one [redacted] cousins. Barnes stated [redacted] up behind her and grabbed her by the back of the neck and pulled her head back while yelling at her. As [redacted] held her by the neck, Barnes stated he took her prescription eyeglasses from her face and acted like he was going to hit her, but never did.

Barnes then decided to put her son in her car at which point [redacted] reached inside the car, grabbed her purse in an attempt to get the rest of her keys and ended up dumping the contents on the ground. Barnes stated [redacted] noticed her cousin, G. Hull (Witness # 1) was on the phone with 9-1-1, and then fled north west from the apartment.

I was unable to see any injuries on Barnes neck, and she denied needing medical treatment.

I then spoke with Hull and she stated she was sitting in Barnes' car waiting on her to come outside when she noticed Barnes and [redacted] side of the apartment. Hull stated she watched as [redacted] bbed the keys from Barnes as she was trying to go back into the apartment, and a [redacted] chased her across the parking lot and grabbed Barnes by the back of the neck. Hull then stated [redacted] came over to the car and grabbed the purse out of the front seat and dumped the contents on the ground. Hull stated at this point she called 9-1-1, and [redacted] n off behind the apartment.

Barnes was given a case # and told the process for following up with the prosecutor's office and obtaining a protective order.
