Incident Rpt Misc	On May 17, 2017 at approximately 11:30hrs, Tony Burden was in his home at 1167 Buchanon getting a drink of water in his kitchen. When out of the corner of his eye he saw a tall dark complected man standing in his home. Tony confronted the suspect and began to go after him. The suspect hit Burden multiple times, eventually "knocking him out".
	Around 12:00hrs, Miriam Englehardt arrived home and found her husband Tony lying on the floor with what looked like dried up blood in his mouth. Miriam thought that Tony would start to feel better after he slept, and wasn't worried about going to the hospital or calling the cops, because she didn't want to make a scene for her four children. While going through the home she found an X-box unplugged which she thought was odd. Also a dowel rod that had recently been thrown outside was inside the home with what looked like dried up blood. Multiple prescription medications were missing as well.
	Around 00:00hrs on May 18, 2017, Miriam took Tony to Deaconess Hospital for his pain. At that point I, Officer J. Pugh, was dispatched to Deaconess for a burglary and battery report. Crime scene arrived and took photographs of Tony's injuries, brusing and red marks on his arms and legs. Det. Arbaugh arrived and spoke with both Tony and Miriam.
	Miriam had officers and the det. follow her from Deaconess to her home to show them the scene. While in the home the Det. Arbaugh challenged Miriam about what had really happened at the residence. Miriam got upset and told us to leave and that she didn't even want a police report anymore.
