Reported: 04/30/2017.  I was dispatched to the Penny Lane Coffee House in reference to a harassment report. I met with the victim, Vinci. Vinci stated she and the suspect, Jones, were at one time engaged to be married, but are no longer in a relationship. Vinci states she has received several harassing texts and phone calls from Jones. Vinci stated that last night, 29 April, at approximately 1930 hrs, Jones parked his truck across her garage doors and would not allow her to drive away and began calling and texting again. Vinci stated she was afraid and sneaked out her back door and walked until a friend was able to come pick her up. Vinci stated she stayed away from her home all night, because Jones told her he would be waiting on her front porch when she got home. Vinci also stated Jones told her it would be a long day if she continued to ignore his calls. I took Vinci home and cleared her house, Jones was not there. I advised Vinci to file for a protective order and told her to call		REED, S. E.

LW 1709272 Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report	Howell, Beth Ann (W F, 45) VICTIM of Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report (C), at 4658 Spring Valley Rd, Evansville, IN, between 13:20, 04/30/2017 and 13:31, 04/30/2017. Reported: 04/30/2017. I was dispatched to the listed address in reference to a disorderly conduct. Dispatch advised that a woman was screaming at someone to get out of her truck. The truck was described as a blue Ford. This woman was later identified as the victim. When I arrived on scene, the truck was gone and I could find no one in the parking lot. I knocked on 4658 and spoke with a male occupant (OF). I asked the OF what happened? It appeared as if the OF was under the influence of alcohol and he had been crying. The OF kept stating, "nothing, it was me, it was me." I said ok, but what happened. The OF reiterated his previous statements. During this, the caller had arrived. The caller is a friend of the victim`s and he knows the OF. The caller stated that he heard a "scuffle" between the victim and OF on the phone and was told to call the police. At this time, the OF began crying and apologized to the caller, then became irate and stated that he did not want to do anything about and wanted to go back inside his apartment. I told the OF that would be fine and he went back inside. I then spoke with the caller and received the victim`s information. The victim was on the phone with the caller and I had him, to tell her, to meet me at the corner of Spring Valley and N. Green River. The victim stated that she and her boyfriend (OF) are having relationship problems. She wanted to break it off and he doesn`t. Earlier the OF called the victim, stating that when she comes to get the truck, to bring jumper cables, because the battery is dead. When she came to get the truck, he climbed in before she could leave, wanting to talk. The victim repeated several times it was over, because he is abusive and a severe alcoholic. Not willing to leave, the victim tried to call police, but in doing so, the OF tried to grab the phone. The victim slapped the OF to protect herself and to force him out of the truck. The OF then punched the victim in the right cheek with a closed fist. The victim then started pushing the OF, until he fell out of the truck. As she drove away, the OF tried to get back in the truck, but fell to the pavement. The victim then drove away and called her friend. The victim states that she does NOT want to press charges. Both parties were very uncooperative.		PYLANT, R. E.

LW 1709276 Battery - Class B Misdemeanor [bm]	The female was transported to Deaconess ER. Once the suspect got to Deaconess, she became disorderly and was yelling and cursing at the hospital staff. The patient had gotten off of her bed in the hallway, and was blocking the entire hall, disrupting the patient treatment process. I was requested to assist from the staff. I told the suspect to be quiet and cooperate with the staff. She stated that she didn't care and that I could take her to jail. The suspect pulled away from the staff aggressively while they were attempting to treat her. The suspect started to point at one of the male staff members, and pointed he index finger and thumb at the staff pointing it like a gun. I could smell a strong odor of alcoholic beverages on the suspects breaath and observed that he eyes were red and glassy. The suspects speech was also slurred, and she staggered as I watched her get off of her bed in the ER hallway. The suspect continued to be yell and kept cursing loudly. She yelled "fuck you" to the hospital staff, and I again told her to be quiet and quit cursing. LW 1709302 Theft- Shoplifting &lt; $750	Walmart S Red Bank, Store #1341 VICTIM of Theft- Shoplifting < $750 (C), at 335 S Red Bank Rd, Evansville, IN, between 17:30, 04/23/2017 and 19:18, 04/30/2017. Reported: 04/30/2017.  An officer was dispatched to 335 Red Bank in reference to a theft report. Upon arrival, loss prevention worker advised he had video evidence of two female suspects selecting items matching an old receipt. The suspects were using a Walmart app that allows a person to scan in receipts. The suspects then used that app to return merchandise they selected in the store without paying again. The suspects got a refund on unpaid merchandise. The suspects both fled the scene.		WARD, J. D.
LW 1709303 Traffic-accident Hit&amp;run /prop [bm]	Jarvis, Gerald Gene (W M, 80) VICTIM of Traffic-accident Hit&run /prop [bm] (C), at 4400 N First Ave, Evansville, IN, between 20:42, 04/30/2017 and 20:43, 04/30/2017. Reported: 04/30/2017.  Officers were dispatched to a hit and run with property damage. Once on scene we spoke to the reporter who stated he was south on First Ave. when a champagne colored Ford Edge came out of the United Bank parking lot and struck his vehicle. The collision caused damage to the driver side rear wheel and rear quarter panel.  Both vehicles initially stop for the accident. The reporter stated the other driver wanted to settle it without police being involved. When the reporter told her that he couldn't due to him having a company vehicle, the other driver fled the scene.  While waiting for police to arrive to take a police report for the hit and run, a silver Chevy truck came and picked up the front bumper of the offenders vehicle. The victim was able to get the plate of the truck and it was added to the report.		DEBLANC, M. E.
