LW 1711666 Battery - Domestic - Presence Of Child &lt;16	Costello, Kelli Mari (W F, 30) VICTIM of Battery - Domestic - Presence Of Child &lt;16 (C), at 924 E Olmstead Ave, Evansville, IN, between 10:45, 05/29/2017 and 11:15, 05/29/2017. Reported: 05/29/2017. Officer was dispatched to 2575 N Bedford for a stand by so Costello could pick up her children from Rowans at 924 Olmstead . Upon my arrival on Bedford I was told by the victims relatives that Costello had returned to the Olmstead address to get her children. I went to the Olmstead address, which only a few houses away, and located Costello and Rowans in front of his house talking. Costello had sent her kids to the Bedford address with family members and now wanted to get her belongings. While Costello went into the house to pack her stuff up I stayed outside and talked with Rowans, after a few minutes I went inside and checked on Costello. While talking with Costello she told me she and Rowans had been arguing in the living room when he grabbed a plastic baseball bat and hit her several times on various parts of her body, she showed me several red and swollen spots on her legs, arms and a swollen spot above her right eye. I asked Costello if she wanted to file charges but she said no because she didn't want to go to jail too. When I asked her why she would go to jail she said Rowans would say she hit him first and she would go to jail with him. I then called for another car for back up. Costello also informed me her kids were in the house when the battery was happening and had been in and out of the room it was happening in. After a few minutes Off Holder arrived and I approached Rowans and informed him he was being arrested for Domestic Violence, he claimed Costello had hit him in the face with the bat first but had no signs of injury. Officer Holder transported Rowans to jail while I called for Crime Scene and stood by while Costello packed. CSU Gentry arrived and took pictures of the victims injuries.	PAULSON, H. M.
