Reported: 05/23/2017. No victims listed. Officers were called to the Wal Mart parking lot in reference to several puppies, and their mother, being left in a hot car. The caller advised the sun was beating down on the vehicle and she had been there for around 20 minutes. I arrived and the reporter was providing shade for the front of the vehicle window. I observed a small tan dog (the mother) and 3 very small puppies in a cardboard box in the front seat with the sun beating down on them. The puppies were panting and laying on their sides, one appeared dead. The passenger side windows were cracked about 1" but the others were closed. I went to the drivers side of the vehicle and busted out the front window. I noted that it was very hot in the vehicle (at this time it was 76 outside). I then got water and started giving it to the puppies and the mother. The dogs owner came outside a few minutes later and wanted to know what was going on. I explained that vehicles got very hot and she shouldn't leave animals in a hot car. Animal control arrived and saw the need to take the dogs directly to the vet and cite the owner. Wal Mart Employees got a broom and small vacuum and I cleaned the owners car of glass. The owner was given a case number and advised of the damage report that would be completed.	JACOBS, P. F.

Reported: 05/23/2017. I, Officer J. Smith, was flagged down by a witness who stated he saw a man slumped over the steering wheel, partially out in the middle of the intersection, in a silver van, at Green River Rd/Virginia St. I located a van in the middle of the intersection with a white male slumped over the steering wheel out in the intersection while the light was red. I flipped on my lights and sirens to clear the intersection to get behind the vehicle and I saw the male's head pop up. I approached the vehicle and witnessed a white male sitting in driver's seat, vehicle running, and the vehicle was in drive. I asked the male subject to roll down the window the rest of the way, at which time the driver just stared at me as if he did not understand what I was saying. I went around to the Driver's side of the vehicle and asked the male subject what he was doing. The male subject could barely put a sentence together, and he had very slurred speech. The subject was shaking and his pupils were pinpoint. I asked the subject if he had any medical issues, drank anything, or smoked anything. The subject stated no. I asked the subject to exit the vehicle and he was placed into handcuffs. Officer Buettel arrived on scene to assist me. The male subject was given SFST's and failed two of the three tests. During a search of the vehicle, I located a small, clear, corner baggie of a green leafy substance, as well as a one hitter used to smoke narcotics. The subject was then read implied consent and he agreed to a chemical test. The subject was transported to Deaconess for a blood draw for a state kit, and then taken to VCCC and booked.		SMITH, J. L.
