Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1714106	I responded to a house explosion at 1717 Hercules and upon arrival observed several people running in the street and what appeared to be multiple casualties in the front yards. The residence at 1717 Hercules was engulfed in flames. Upon exiting my vehicle I observed a subject crawling out of the burning debris. I attended to this victim while Ofc. Middendorf attended to additional victims down the street. I requested additional AMR for the multiple victims. EFD and AMR began to arrive and attend to the fire as well as the victims. A search of the surrounding area for additional victims came up negative. One of the victims stated that additional victims may still remain inside the residence and this information was relayed to EFD. I located the owner of the property that had arrived on scene and identified him. He is listed as the reporting party on this report and provided me with the name of the business that actually owns the property. Several victims were transported by AMR to area hospitals for treatment. Supervisors were notified and the scene was secured by Officers. End		GROSSMAN, K. A.

LW 1714154 Traffic-accident Hit&amp;run /prop [bm]	I, Officer S. Brown, was dispatched to location in reference to a dispute. On arrival, I met with two parties outside who were gathering belongings and packing them into a car. The front door of the apartment was open when I pulled up; however, it was shut quickly after I began exiting my patrol vehicle. The pair outside gave me their names and said they were mother and daughter. They advised there was a dispute over belongings and living arrangements, but that they just wanted to get their stuff and leave. They said they were struck by the female inside the apartment, but that they did not wish to do anything about it. It was evident they were not injured. I asked if they were the ones who called the police, to which they replied "no." They said female caller was the individual who shut the door to the apartment upon my arrival. I then knocked on the front door to make contact with the other involved party. The female opened the door and asked why the females outside were being allowed to leave since they battered her. I stepped inside and asked what happened. The female said she and the daughter who was outside had been bickering all day. She said it culminated when the daughter struck her across the face. She went on to state that the girl`s mother also battered her and grabbed her by the hair. I asked why the females were bickering all day and then discovered the two females are in a romantic relationship. The couple were staying at this location with family members due to their electricity and water being shut off. The couple are arguing over property and ownership of various items. There were no injuries to either party. The parties were also separated for the night.	Eastwood, Yolanda Elaine (W F, 49) VICTIM of Traffic-accident Hit&run /prop [bm] (C), at 1099 Se First St/adams Ave, Evansville, IN, between 22:00, 06/27/2017 and 22:11, 06/27/2017. LW 1714155 Narc-poss Paraphernalia	Officers were dispatched to the listed location for a hit and run incident that occurred. The victim was able to provide officers with a brief description of the suspect`s vehicle, which the victim said traveled east on Adams after the collision occurred. The victim had a complaint of pain to her head but refused medical attention. I was speaking with Gorecki during a dispatched run in the parking lot of Walmart west. During the conversation I observed a clothing security sensor located on the ground next to the passenger door of the vehicle she was sitting in. I asked her if there were any stolen items in her vehicle, which she stated there were not. I then asked for consent to search, which she gave. I then located a purse which she identified as hers, containing a makeup bag. Inside the makeup bag I observed two glass pipes that I immediately recognized as those used to ingest methamphetamine into the body. Gorecki initially stated that even though the purse and all the other contents in the purse were hers, the pipes were not. After further interrogation, Gorecki admitted that the pipes were in fact hers. I recovered the pipes and Gorecki was cited for paraphernalia. The pipes were placed in narcotics evidence.	Society VICTIM of Narc-poss Paraphernalia (C), at 335 S Red Bank Rd, Evansville, IN, between 22:45, 06/27/2017 and 22:46, 06/27/2017.
