LW 1712423	Walmart S Red Bank, Store #1341 VICTIM of Theft- Shoplifting < $750 (C), at 335 S Red Bank Rd, Evansville, IN, between 19:44, 06/06/2017 and 19:59, 06/06/2017. Reported: 06/06/2017.		SMITH, R. A.
Theft- Shoplifting < $750	On 06/06/2017 at approximately 1944 hours, I, Officer R. Smith was dispatched to 335 S. Red Bank Rd. in reference to a criminal mischief in progress. The reporter stated the two subjects were using a blow torch to open watches from their cases. The reporter stated that the subjects were exiting the business. The reporter stated that the two subjects were leaving in a black passenger car. Officer M. Hasting was the first on scene. The reporter advised Central Dispatch that Officer Hastings was right behind the vehicle. Officer Hastings initiated a car stop due to the driver disregarding a stop sign. I, Officer R. Smith assisted Officer Hasting in the traffic stop. Officer Hastings advised the driver why the traffic stop was being initiated and also explained to the offenders that they had been identified committing criminal mischief at the listed location. Officer Hastings and myself removed both subjects from the vehicle and read each subject their Miranda warning. Both subjects stated that they understood their rights. Officers M. Hastings stated to me that during search incident to arrest, he felt a hard, glass item in the right pocket of the male offender he was questioning. Officer M. Hastings stated to me that the pocket was open in such a way that he could see the glass pipe on the offender's person. The offender admitted to me without my questioning him that he made a stupid mistake for stealing watches. Officer A. Epmeier spoke with the reporter, Demarco Lewis, who stated that he observed the subjects take several watches from their areas of display and conceal them on their person. Lewis stated that he followed the subjects around the business as he observed the subjects take a small torch-like lighter and attempt to burn the watches out of their cases. Lewis stated that the subjects exited the business passing all points of sales without paying for the items. Both subjects were cited (8220115675) and released.
