Case #	Description (A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
Conv For Battery [15]	Officer Fendel and I were dispatched to 537 S. New York in reference to a domestic violence that had just occurred. We arrived and met with the victim. The offender had left prior to our arrival. She stated that she and the offender live together and have been dating for two and a half years. On 061417 at approximately 0630 hours, the victim woke up to make the offender his breakfast. At approximately 0700 hours, she attempted to wake the offender. The victim advised that the offender had to be at work by 0730 hours and he was in danger of losing his job if he didn't show up. The offender started yelling at the victim, telling her that he "doesn't give a fuck." At approximately 0720 hours, she was in the back yard with the offender. She told him that if he wanted her to take him to work they needed to go. The offender became angrier and pulled a trellis out of the yard. He then stomped on her already injured foot which resulted in more pain. The victim sat down in a patio chair. The offender continued to yell at her, blaming her dogs for his lack of sleep. He pushed the victim backward, causing her to fall and injure her left shoulder. She stood and the offender bit her above her right eye brow. The victim complained of pain to her shoulder, face and foot. She had an abrasion above her right eye and on her left shoulder. There was also dirt on the upper left shoulder of the victim's t-shirt. Crime Scene Detective Gentry photographed the injuries. We were unable to locate the offender. The offender has a previous conviction for domestic violence battery on 093015 against the victim. Cause No: 82D01-1505-CM-002782.
LW 1713042 Residential Entry	Kiesel, Gerald Wayne (W M, 61) VICTIM of Residential Entry (C), at 2601 W Virginia St, Evansville, IN, between 11:00, 06/10/2017 and 08:00, 06/14/2017. Reported: 06/14/2017. Cross with case number 17-12730. Victim, Mr Kiesel, is the owner of the duplex at 2601 W VIRGINIA ST. He recently changed the locks on Apartment A due to the ex-tenant, listed Suspect (OF), abandoning the apartment. He reported the damage done to his apartment on Saturday, June 10 (see 17-12730). He left the apartment after turning off the air conditioning and changing the locks at approx. 11:00 hours. Today, he came back to the apartment and found it unlocked. Inside, there were handwritten notes to him taped on the walls in multiple locations. The air conditioning was also on and turned to the maximum setting. Mr Kiesel called Police again. Mr Kiesel advised that he thinks Suspect now lives somewhere in Newburgh, IN. He has been in contact, by text, with Suspect. Listed cell number in Suspect's information is the number by which Mr Kiesel has texted with Suspect. Mr Kiesel was provided with this case number and the phone number for the Detective Office.	KELLER, E. Reported: 06/14/2017. Shepherd (D2; RP) stated he approached this interchange on Lynch Rd, westbound, entered the right turn-only lane, to proceed north on I-69. A work truck (V1) was stopped at the west end of this lane, at the intersection, where a YIELD sign stands, unobstructed. Shepherd stopped behind V1, waited, and checked for oncoming traffic to whom V1 would be required to yield the right of way. He observed no oncoming traffic and could not observe any obvious hazardous condition about V1, itself (flat tire, etc). Shepherd honked the horn on V2, and he observed the white reverse lights illuminate at the rear of V1. V1 backed up, impacted V2, causing non-disabling damage, but no injury, then proceeded north on the on-ramp to I-69, fleeing the scene. Shepherd followed V1 to Boonville-New Harmony Rd, where V1 exited. Shepherd honked at V1, again, to attempt to draw driver`s attention, but V1 proceeded away. Shepherd returned to the scene and filed this report.		DONAHUE, K. M.
