Reported: 06/23/2017. Officers were dispatched to 3900 Oak Hill Road to meet with John Rice. Officers arrived and met with John who stated that his ex-wife, Amber Rice, was refusing to give him their children as it was John`s weekend to have the two children, CR and ER. John stated that Amber was supposed to meet him at the Target on the east side of town to exchange the children at 1700 hrs today, but she never showed up and eventually drove to CVS to meet officers. John said that he tried to call and text her, but she would not answer or reply. John stated that Amber is upset because he got the children last weekend since it was Father`s Day weekend and that was her weekend, and that he was supposed to have them again this weekend as it is his normal weekend to have them. John stated that apparently Amber had plans to take the kids out of town for a ballgame even though it was not her weekend. John did have some texts on his phone from earlier in the day stating things like he didn`t even care about the kids. He also had a text he sent about meeting at the Target at 1700 hrs and a follow-up text asking if she was going to bring the kids. The docket number for the parenting agreement is 82D05-1502-DR-00168. Officers attempted to call Amber, but she did not answer her phone. John did not have a current address for Amber as she moved a couple of months ago and still hadn`t given John her updated address.
