	staying with the offender for about two days. She said the offender has been one of her best friends since high school and allowed her to stay there due to personal reasons involving ABK tracking and her living all the way out of Posey Co., IN. Originally, Caswell stated the offender picked her up from a store on Green River Rd. She stated he rolled a blunt and started to smoke marijuana in the truck, and she objected. At that point, she demanded him to take her back to Posey Co., because she was out on bond for a prior charge. According to Caswell, he became very angry and attempted to take her cell phone from her. During the argument, the face of the cell phone had cracked. Caswell stated she bought the phone for $50 from the offender 1 week ago, and she has sat up all of her accounts on it. Once they pulled onto Royal Ave close to 5701 Vogel Rd., the offender had grabbed her by the neck causing pain. Officer noticed some redness to the left side of Caswell`s neck. She stated she exited the truck and ran into the business at 5701 Vogel Rd. The offender followed causing problems for the business and ultimately left before officers arrived. Another officer dispatched to the scene noticed the truck driving and conducted a traffic stop. Officer advised Caswell on how to follow through with charges.

Reported: 06/29/2017. Officers were dispatched to Evansville Teacher's Federal Credit Union (ETFCU) main branch at 4401 Theatre Drive for a Bunco/Fraud report. Officers met with the victim, Patricia Vanderveer, and a representative from the credit union. Patricia stated that she met a subject on Facebook, HD, who goes by Bricks, about 1 - 1 1/2 years ago and had a relationship via facebook. Patricia stated that on 6-23-17, Bricks deposited $4800 dollars into her credit union account. Patricia had given Bricks her account number as she had built a relationship with him and trusted him. Patricia said on that same day, she received a phone call from a subject who identified himself as Michael Richard. Patricia didn't know him and wouldn't initially talk to him, but he told Patricia that he was an advocate for Bricks. Patricia still wouldn't listen to Michael and said she only trusted Bricks. Bricks then got in contact with Patricia and who told Patricia to trust Michael. Michael then called Patricia back and told her to get Pay Pal cards with the money that was deposited into her account. Patricia then proceeded to get some iTunes Cards in the amounts of $50 and $100 and sent these to Bricks via Messenger. Patricia sent $500 worth of cards to Bricks this morning before being contacted by the credit union who observed the possible fraudulent activity on her account. ETFCU Fraud Coordinator Jed Medler was on the phone with iTunes attempting to put stops on the cards and get some of the money back. Reported: 06/29/2017. Officers were called to the area of 1013 Macarthur Cir in reference to a fight in progress. The caller stated there was alot of yelling and it looked like it was getting physical down the street. Once I arrived, I was directed to 1027 Macarthur Cir. I approached the address and there was a black female, later identified as Audrey Hurtz, a white female, later identified as Katheryn Taylor and a juvenile black male. Audrey advised that her son, Deshay Hurtz, had jumped her. I could smell a strong odor of alcohol coming from her person and she had no shoes on. I could observe a small laceration to her forehead and a large "goose-egg" on her forehead as well. There also appeared to be some swelling to her right cheek. Katheryn appeared to be the sober and more calm of the two so I began speaking with her first. She advised that she arrived home and her boyfriend, Deshay, and his mother, Audrey, were both intoxicated. She stated that Audrey started yelling about how Deshay needed to break up with her and he Katheryn was not wanted. Katheryn advised that she and Deshay had been allowing Audrey to stay on the couch because she had no where to go. The argument escalated and Audrey made a move toward Audrey as if to hit her. Deshay stepped in and blocked Audrey. She then began punching Deshay and he put her in a headlock to stop her from hitting him anymore. The fight continued and ended on the ground. The juvenile male [WI-1] tried to step in to stop Audrey his grandmother] from hitting Deshay. When he did, he was inadvertently grabbed by Audrey and throw to the side. According to both Katheryn and Audrey there was no malice behind her grabbing WI-1. Katheryn advised that the fight would have never stopped if she had not called for a friend to come get Deshay so he could cool off. I was unable to speak with Deshay to get his account of the altercation. While speaking with Katheryn, WI-1 came up to me and said his arm hurt. I asked what had happened and he told me that grandma Audrey] had grabbed his arm and threw him. He said it hurt by his wrist and began holding it and crying. Katheryn contacted WI-1's guardian, Floyd Brogden. He arrived at the scene a short time later. Audrey spoke with Officer Herrmann about the whole ordeal. She confirmed that she was telling Deshay to end things with Katheryn as he is only staying with her because he is on papers.
