LW 1714475 Battery- Hff Domestic [am]	thought someone was locked out . At 0630 she saw the female entering the hole in the door of 1415 Gibson, and called Police. Prior to Officer`s arrival Tim Putnam saw a W F with a pony tale standing in front of 1416 Gibson. The description does not match the resident Wood, Jasmine Nicole (B F, 24) VICTIM of Battery- Hff Domestic [am] (C), at 2028 Kathleen Ave, Evansville, IN, between 06:30, 07/02/2017 and 07:43, 07/02/2017. Reported: 07/02/2017. I was dispatched to the 2000 block of Kathleen Av. in reference to several people arguing outside. The caller advised that it has been going on for about three hours. When I arrived in the area, I did not hear anything, but observed a man outside cutting wood. I asked if he had heard anything, in which he stated yes, but they`re gone now. The man then pointed the house out to me and I went to speak with the residents. I knocked and was met at the door by an older white female (IO). I advised her as to why I was there and asked if everything was okay. The female stated everything was fine now, but her daughter (VI) and her daughter`s boyfriend (OF) have been arguing, but finally left. The mother stated around 0630 this morning, the VI and OF entered into a verbal argument. It turned physical when the OF punched the VI with a closed fist on the left cheek and knocked her unconscious. Once the IO, Nikki, realized her daughter had been hit, she, along with her other daughter, confronted the OF and began arguing with him. Nikki stated that the OF tried to hit her as well, but was stopped by the VI and her other daughter. Eventually, the VI offered to take the OF to his aunt`s house on Powell Ave., in which he agreed, and they left. A short while later, the VI returned to the listed address and wanted to press charges for the battery. The VI also confirmed the above statements that were given by her mother. The VI had visible bruising to the left side of her face and stated that she and the OF do have a son together. Their child was not present during the assault. Crime Scene was called for photos and the VI was advised on how to secure a restraining order.		PYLANT, R. E.

Reported: 07/02/2017. No victims listed. I spoke with Tiffini at the listed address in reference to her boyfriend, Brent. Tiffini advised several days ago Brent made verbal threats to "Punch her in the mouth". Tiffini stated she and Brent have been in an on and off again relationship. Lately their relationship has been rocky and when Brent made threats to hit her she decided to leave. Brent has been trying to locate Tiffini over the past couple days by driving to all the hotels. Brent told Tiffini's daughter tonight that he did locate her and knew what hotel she was staying in. I spoke with the desk clerk who confirmed this and stated a male had been there looking for Tiffini earlier in the day but she would not give him any information. Tiffini was advised if she had any further problems with Brent to call 911.

LW 1714527 Child-custody Interfere [cm]	RESTRICTED VICTIM of Child-custody Interfere [cm] (C), on 07/02/2017, 23:00. Reported: 07/02/2017. The offender was upset with the reporter and witness over their refusal to let her have the child for a family function. Reporter and witness state they have custody of the child for half the summer, beginning on July 1st. The offender came to the reporters home while they were outside and exchanged words with them Offender took the child by the hand, and walked away with her. They do not believe the child to be in any danger, and that this was simply done out of spite. Witness states that she has had words with the offender in the past, and that they do not get along. The reporter and witness could not produce the court documents which detailed their parenting times. The offender reportedly lives on the next street north, but they did not know the address. Offender also told them that she would not be going home with the child, so they wouldn't be able to locate her tonight.		DICKINSON, J. D.
