Reported: 07/19/2017. I, (Ofc B.Hollins), was working off-duty at Deaconess Hospital when a female entered the E.R visibly upset. I made contact with the victim, Jazmyn Anderson, who stated that the offender attacked her. Anderson stated her friend (offender) picker her up from her home when both parties began arguing over issues involving her brother. Anderson stated the argument became intense and a physical altercation ensued and the offender struck her in the face. Anderson stated that during the physical altercation the offender`s brown pitbull attacked her. The pitbull bit Anderson on the thigh and her upper lip. Anderson stated that the offender then dropped her off at the E.R for treatment. I observed Anderson had an extremely swollen upper lip. Anderson then pulled her pants down on her own accord and showed Deaconess staff and me a large dog bite on her left thigh. Anderson was given a case number.		HOLLINS, B. E.
