Truitt stated he had passed out while working in Washington, IN yesterday around 0945 hrs. His wife came to visit him leaving only their roommate (IO) with keys to the address. Truitt believes that at some point on 7/18/2017 the IO allowed someone inside the residence that took stereo items belonging to Truitt. There was no signs of forced entry. Truitt does not necessarily suspect the IO of taking the items because she has lived at the address for approximately 6 months with no items being stolen. However, Truitt does suspect that she is "an accomplice" and allowed someone inside to take the items. Truitt stated that the suspect actually swapped out off-brand 12 inch subs for his ALPINE subs that were mounted into boxes. The suspect also took a DUAL touchscreen car stereo from a rubbermaid box next to Truitt's bed but left numerous items of equal or greater value throughout the house.		ROSS, K. R.
