Battery- Hff Domestic [am]	Officers were dispatched to 1817 Franklin St. for a domestic violence in progress. We were the first officers on scene and saw a young woman walking on the sidewalk near the neighboring house. She had a torn shirt, was crying and she identified herself as D. Shelton, the victim of the domestic violence. Shelton gave us permission to enter her residence and look for her boyfriend, the offender, who she reported was still in the house. Officers entered the house and attempted to make contact but only the offender`s cousin, D. Fisher, was in the house. Officers observed clothing, a vacuum cleaner and other various personal items strewn about the front and back yard, as well as in the back bedroom of the house.
	Shelton said that she and her boyfriend of three years had gotten in a fight the prior morning at their shared residence because he had lost his job. When the victim returned home from work that evening at 9pm, she discovered that the offender was not at home. In anger, she said she threw some of his clothes and personal items out in the yard.
	When the offender returned home this morning around 8am, there was an altercation between the offender and the victim. While the victim was lying in the bed in the back bedroom, the offender knocked over a large sunglasses case onto the bed, as well as attempting to strike the victim with a vacuum cleaner and wooden box. As she protected herself with a pillow, she ran to get her phone to call the police. In the process, he grabbed her by the neck and drug her through the house, eventually throwing her down in the living room and holding her down by the neck with his knee. She was trying to push him off, because she could not breathe. At this point he grabbed her phone and threw it, breaking it in the process.
	When the victim was able to get free, she went next door to use the neighbor`s phone to call 911. After making contact with dispatch, she stayed on the line and walked back to her house to get her purse. The offender was yelling at her the entire time until she walked out the front door back to the neighbor`s house, at which point officers began to arrive.
	The offender`s cousin, D. Fisher, said that he had been asleep in the front bedroom when he heard loud noises from the back of the house. He heard the offender say
