Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	The victim states that at approximately 0740 hrs. this morning, the offender came by wanting his clothes. The victim had pressed charges against the OF for DV Battery and has filed for divorce. The victim had secured a restraining order against the OF while he was incarcerated, but he has yet to be officially served. The victim told the OF that she took all his clothes to his mother's residence and he no longer has anything here. Moreover, the victim advised the OF that she had secured a restraining order against him as well. As the OF was leaving, he stated to the victim, "you know you can't come outside, right?" I advised the victim that I would not be able to officially charge the OF with Invasion of Privacy, until he has been officially served. Secondly, his statement, all though could be deemed a veiled threat, was not concrete enough to charge him with intimidation. The victim stated she understood. However, I advised the victim that I would do an incident report to get it on record and I would try to find the OF and get him officially served. The victim thanked me and was given the incident number. I then spoke with Off. C. Pierce, briefed him as to what I had, and asked if he could go to the OF's mother's house on Cherry St. and verbally serve the OF with the restraining order. Off. Pierce agreed. Contact was made with the OF and he was officially served by Off. Pierce and Bagby. The following is information regarding the protection order. Cause# 82D07-1706-PO-3549, Chasity Lester vs. Nathaniel Lester III, granted 6/30/17, expires 6/30/2019, hearing 7/27/17 @ 1pm.
LW 1714644 Missing Juv	Missing Juv (C), at 115 Wilson Sq, Evansville, IN, between 22:00, 07/03/2017 and 08:48, 07/04/2017. Reported: 07/04/2017. No victims listed. The reporter and her husband have guardianship over their niece until further notice. This has been since the beginning of this year. The troubled teen has lived in dozens of places according to the reporter. She has recently been grounded due to Cs on her report card and her general disobedience. She had just been ungrounded days ago. The victim seemed excited about some new outfits she had recently brought home from her job at JC Penny. She had asked to go to a friends house to spend the 4th of July then to return by noon on the 5th. The reporter had met the girls mother and she agreed. Yesterday the reporters son dropped the girl off at 406 Lexington the home of Wyatt. The reporter understood it was the Kerth address she would go to but since talking to that mom she never arrived there. None of the contacts have seen her since 10 last night. She is possible in the company of IO,Cameron.		CURRENT, F. P.

LW 1714646 Battery - Domestic - Presence Of Child &lt;16	Scott, Whitney Nicole (B F, 21) VICTIM of Battery - Domestic - Presence Of Child &lt;16 (C), at 1423 Savannah Dr, Evansville, IN, between 08:00, 07/04/2017 and 10:01, 07/04/2017. Reported: 07/04/2017. Officers responded to a domestic violence in progress at the listed address. When we arrived on scene, we met with the caller. The caller advised that the two residents at the aforementioned address are always fighting. Today, the caller said that he has heard screaming, things being thrown, and sounds of physical force being used. The caller added that they have two small children in the apartment with them. As officers approached the apartment, I could hear the victim, Whitney and the OF arguing. I knocked several times and did not receive an answer. After knocking, I heard what sounded like physical fighting and a female yelling. I then advised dispatch, requested a sergeant, and forced entry. Once the door was kicked open, Whitney approached officers and was handed off to Off. Cueto. I announced into the apartment "police, come to the front door now!" A small male (V3) child started walking toward the front room. I told Whitney to grab her son, in which she complied. During this, the OF came into the front room, in which I then ordered him at gun point to turn around and put his hands behind his back. The OF complied and was placed in custody without further incident. Off. Cueto interviewed Whitney, while I interviewed the OF. The OF stated that nothing physical happened, they were just arguing over cigarettes. I asked the OF, if nothing physical happened, why do you have fresh scratches all over your neck, arms, and back. The OF stated he was wrestling a friend earlier today and that's where they came from. In conclusion, no one cooperated. No one wanted to press charges and both stated it was only verbal. The two children in the apartment were too small to interview. The OF was arrested on a local warrant for DV Battery and a felony NCIC hit out of Daviess Co., KY. and transported to the VCCC. Sgt. Motz and crime scene were called, due to the forced entry and to photograph the door and the OF's injuries.	PYLANT, R. E.
