LW 1716584	Narc-poss Marijuana, Hash Oil, Hashish, Salvia, Synthetic	but officers were unable to verify this at the time of the run. Officers asked the offender to leave for the night, and stood by with him while he was recovering some, but not all, of his property. When officers walked into the backyard with the offender all three could smell the distinct odor of marijuana. As the offender was leaving with just his cell phone and bicycle, Officer Hastings observed a swing with what appeared to be prescription bottle sitting on the seat. Officer Hastings checked the two bottles and found them to be labeled with the suspect's name. One bottle contained the listed prescribed pills and the other had what appeared to be a leafy greenish-brown substance that had the distinct odor of marijuana. Officers advised the suspect of the discovery and he was given his miranda warnings. The suspect stated he understood and then made the statement that the marijuana in the pill bottle was his and he would eat it for pain relief. The suspect was cited for the misdemeanor and released from the scene (UTT 8220118213). Evidence was taken back to headquarters to be submitted into evidence. The leafy greenish-brown substance tested positive for THC, using a duquenois-levine reagent marijuana test kit. The substance had a field weight of 0.6 grams. The evidence was sealed and dropped into the JTF workroom locker. COC: Offender-Officer Hastings-Officer Grimes-JTF workroom locker Society VICTIM of Narc-poss Marijuana, Hash Oil, Hashish, Salvia, Synthetic (C), at 1499 S Kentucky Ave/taylor Ave, Evansville, IN, between 21:20, 07/27/2017 and 21:40, 07/27/2017. Reported: 07/27/2017. The victim states on 07/26/17, around noon, she went to visit a friend near the Chuckles at Fares and Virginia. She had her friend, Jordan (OF), with her. The victim parked on the lot of the Chuckles and walked over to her friend's house. When she came back outside, Jordan and her car were gone. The victim stated that at no time did the OF have any rights to her vehicle, nor did she give him permission to drive it. The victim stated she tried to call for a stolen vehicle report then, but dispatch stated they couldn't do anything for her, it was a civil matter. The victim stated that she called 911 three times, but no one came out. Finally, a female officer called, in which she got into an argument with, because the officer wanted to know who the friend was that she was visiting near the Chuckles. The victim stated that she didn't want to get her friend involved and wasn't going to tell us anything. When I asked the victim questions about who her friend who lived near the Chuckles, the victim wanted to know why I needed that and stated she wasn't giving it and that it wasn't any of my business. I tried to explain, but to no avail. When I asked questions about the offender, the victim stated that she hadn't known him for very long, about a couple of weeks. I asked if he had a drug habit, in which once again, the victim became very belligerent and insulting. I tried to get as much information as I could about the OF's habits, girlfriends, family, etc., but the victim was extremely uncooperative in giving me any information. The victim eventually walked away in anger and I left. A BOL was put out on the vehicle.	PYLANT, R. E.

Reported: 07/28/2017.  Officers were dispatched to the above address in reference to a Domestic Violence in Progress. On scene, we located the victim, later identified as D. Gold, and then detained the suspect, later identified as G. Armstead. Gold stated that her boyfriend, Armstead, had come upstairs to her apartment and hit her in the head, choked, and raped her repeatedly for the past two hours (0030 to 0230). Gold stated that she and Armstead have been in a relationship for the past three years but had recently broken up. Gold was asked if she needed an ambulance and she stated, "No, I can't afford to go to the hospital." I then explained to Gold we would need to go to the hospital to get a Rape Kit complete and she stated she did not want to go. I did not observe any marks on Gold head, face, or neck that would substantiate her story. Gold's apartment did not appear to be in disrepair based on what she was describing.  As I spoke to Gold, I could smell an odor of alcohol on her breath and her speech was slurred. Gold admitted to drinking a "half a pint" earlier in the evening. There were also several beer cans in the trash and on the floor of the apartment.  We then spoke to Armstead who stated that he had brought over his new baby, which he had with another woman, to see Gold. Armstead stated Gold became violent and began hitting him so he went downstairs to apartment A where he has been staying with his daughters. Armstead told me he got to the apartment around midnight and had been there ever since leaving Gold's apartment.  We spoke with Armstead's daughters, both listed as Involved Others. Both daughters stated that Armstead had gotten to the apartment between 2300 and 2400 hours and had not left prior to our arrival.  Detective Arbaugh was called to the scene and spoke to Gold and Armstead. Det. Arbaugh told me that after speaking with Gold that he did not see any injuries to her and that Gold did not want to go to the hospital for the state kit, or to press charges. Det. Arbaugh added that Gold only wanted a report to be taken.  Armstead was released from custody and told to stay away from Gold for the rest of the evening.		KLEIN, P. T.
