LW 1718281 Intimidation Threat [am]	Kitzinger, Rachel Marie (W F, 31) VICTIM of Intimidation Threat [am] (C), at 808 N Elliott St, Evansville, IN, between 15:00, 08/18/2017 and 15:05, 08/18/2017. Reported: 08/18/2017.		GRAY, A. M.
	Victim came to the Crime Prevention Office for help. She was visibly upset. She lives very close to the office and Delaware School. She told me she walked out of her house to go pick-up her kids from school. She has 3 small children and they attend Delaware School. She said that she has filed a Protective Order against her neighbor, which is the listed Offender. She said that he was standing outside on her walk-way and part of the way on the side-walk. She said that he was staring at her and then told her "You are going to get it you Bitch". She said that there was a female walking with him. The female told Victim that Suspect wanted her to go beat up the Victim. Victim and her children are very scared of Offender.
	I contacted Records to see if there was a Protective Order on file. Records Specialist Summer told me that there was a Protective Order pending but there was no documentation that it was served. She said that it was attempted to be served on 8/11/17 but no contact was made.
	Officer Corbin and I went and made contact with the Offender. He admitted that he has been served with a Protective Order and he understands it completely. He told Officers that he did not make any contact with Victim on today's date and that he did not even know that woman that was walking with him. Officer Corbin and I got a copy of the Protective Order from Victim and made a copy for Offender. We also explained to him (even though he said he understands) that he is to have no contact with Victim or her children at all. Offender told Officers that unless we are going to arrest him, that we are to stay off of his property.
	Officers Corbin and Gray walked Victim and her children home to make sure Offender would not come back out and harass them. [08/18/2017 15:50, AGRAY, 1196, EPD]

Reported: 08/18/2017. Listed VI called 911 at approximately 0700 hrs this morning to report his wallet missing. Upon arriving to talk with the VI the VI reported he was given a ride to the store at 0500 hrs. The man who drove him took him back to his house and dropped him off. The VI who is in a wheel chair had his friend bring his chair out to get him out of the van he was riding in. The VI reports at that point in time he realized he did not have his wallet (which reportedly contained $700 cash) in his pocket and shouted at the driver he needed his wallet. VI reports the man heard him, but sped away instead. The VI states he called some people to find out who the guy is and where he could be found. VI states he was directed to 112 W. Oregon, so he went there and talked with the tenants who claimed the man was asleep. (When asked why he did not call the police to get assistance at 0530 to get some assistance when the guy could be located the VI stated he did not call because he was mad.) After the VI realized he was getting nowhere trying to handle the situation on his own he called police. VI reports the man supposedly is not from here, but the residents at 112 W. Oregon are "his people". OF reportedly was driving a brand new van, with KY plates that is a rental. It was reportedly parked at the back of the house on Oregon. The plate he gave came back to a different person to a 1978 Ford.	WHITE, T. E.

He suspect his child's mother is responsible. Goerges, Cole Jacob (W M, 30) VICTIM of Battery-public Safety Official [16] (C), at 7921 Circle Front Ct, Evansville, IN, between 10:05, 08/18/2017 and 10:23, 08/18/2017. Reported: 08/18/2017. Officers were dispatched to 7921 Circle Front Ct. to assist AMR with a subject who was refusing to get his blood checked. The subject, later identified as the offender, was not allowing AMR personnel to check his blood sugar by being uncooperative and aggressive. The offender is a client with Compass Residential Living and requires special needs and to be monitored. While outside of his apartment, the offender became aggressive with a witness, M. Sullivan, who is a manager with Compass Residential Living. When the offender made an aggressive move towards M. Sullivan, the victim, C. Goerges, who is an employee with American Medical Response, stepped in between the two in attempts to calm the offender down. At that point, the offender aggressively moved towards C. Goerges's chest and neck area with his hands; at which point, C. Goerges grabbed both of the offender's hands and controlled him to the floor while trying to calm him verbally. While the offender was on the floor, he spit in C. Goerges's face. The offender eventually calmed down and AMR staff was able to check the offender's blood sugar which was within a normal range. M. Tucker witnessed the incident. The victim, C. Goerges, stated he did not want to press charges.	Goerges, Cole Jacob (W M, 30) VICTIM of Battery-public Safety Official [16] (C), at 7921 Circle Front Ct, Evansville, IN, between 10:05, 08/18/2017 and 10:23, 08/18/2017.
