He had a red mark (later observed by Sgt. Wilson) on his leg. (His girlfriend was present and wanted to scream at me most of the time I was trying to get information from the supposed victim.)
	I drove two blocks north where the incident reportedly occurred. I spoke with IO & the reported OF.
	They collectively told me since they moved in the residence at 701 E Delaware they have tried to be kind to people in the area and have went so far as to feed some of the area homeless (which the "VI" and his girlfriend (IO#2) are). Today they report VI and IO2 came to their home wanting food and they had nothing to offer to them because they were low of food until EBT came in September. VI & IO2 got nasty. Words were exchanged and the VI swung on IO#1. She (IO1) claims he made contact with her face, but glanced and she was not injured. Her mother (listed OF) then went to her aid and struck the VI with her cane, but only in defense of her daughter.
	Through the commotion the IO dropped her cell phone to the ground. IO2 picked up the phone and took it, refusing to give it back.
	I went back to Iowa and Virginia and confronted the VI and IO2. She initially denied any wrongdoing, but then changed her story and produced the phone (again starting to scream at me that she had done nothing wrong by taking the phone). I returned the phone to the IO.
	VI & IO2 ARE BARRED FROM COMING BACK TO 701 E DELAWARE ST.
