| | on him. Officer George then went to room 116 to meet with Amanda Hill, Detalente`s fiance. Hill told Officer George that her and Detalente got into a verbal argument. Officer George saw an abrasion on her chest. When Officer George questioned Hill about the abrasion, Hill originally stated Detalente pushed her. Hill then changed her story and stated that Detalente did not touch her at all. Hill stated that she scratched her chest and caused in the abrasion. Hill then showed Ofc. George many marks on her arms that appeared to be old and self-inflicted. Crime Scene Luecke was called to the scene, however, Hill refused to allow any pictures to be taken of her. I spoke to a witness, Gibson, who stated he only heard Detalente and Hill yelling, however, he never saw anything get physical. Hill continued to state that nothing became physical between her and Detalente. Hill stated she was not going to go to court, not going to press charges, and when given the case number card for this report, Hill told me to throw it away and she did not want it. The case report card was placed on their bed due to Hill refusing to take it. | | |
| LW 1720392 Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report | Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report (C), at 2600 Stringtown Rd, Evansville, IN, between 19:02, 09/13/2017 and 19:10, 09/13/2017. Reported: 09/13/2017. No victims listed. Officers were dispatched to a 911 hang up. Upon arrival officers attempted to make contact with the home owners and noticed blood on the floor of the living room. Officers were able to make it inside of the home and learned that a husband, wife and two children were currently there. The husband was bleeding from the top of his head and was holding a towel over it to control the bleeding but it was bad enough that officers called for AMR to assist. Through the officers investigation it was learned that the husband had been drinking quite a bit that day and at some point before our arrival tried to leave in a vehicle. The wife did not want the husband to leave and there was a struggle over the keys to the vehicle in the master bathroom of the home. Both parties stated that during the struggle for the keys the husband tripped over a bag on the floor and fell into the bath tub that had candle holders around the rim. The candle holder split the top of the husband`s head open but neither said they realized he was bleeding at first. The wife told police that is when she called 911 and then hung up the phone. The wife decided to leave for the evening with the two children that were upstairs and the husband stayed inside of the home because of his level of intoxication. | | JONES, N. A. |

| LW 1720404 Incident Rpt Misc | Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 2603 W Illinois St, Evansville, IN, between 21:04, 09/13/2017 and 22:50, 09/13/2017. Reported: 09/13/2017. No victims listed. I was dispatched to 2603 W Illinois reference to a theft. Once on scene I talked to IO Jobe who stated that in the garage of 2603 was his stolen microwave and range from 2607 W Illinois. He stated that he is remodeling 2607 and it was his property. I asked him if he had filed a theft report and he stated that he did not because he did not have any model numbers or serial numbers. He did tell me that they were stainless steal Kenmore range. I went up to 2603 W Illinois and made contact with the resident, IO Allen. she stated that she did have a range and microwave in her garage but it was given to her by her mother for her house. She allowed me to go into the garage to look at the microwave and range. In the garage I did see the stainless microwave and range but they were Samsung brand. I told the IO Jobe and he then stated that the brand might have been Samsung, he was not sure. I then told him that without model and serial numbers it would be extremely difficult to prove that the items in the garage were actually his. | | HENDERSON, N. |

Upon contact, officers noticed the odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle and the front passenger was suspected of eating evidence as well. This same passenger mentioned he had a warrant also. He was detained as well as the driver when officers also found an unknown white powdery substance as well inside the car. Officers were not able to test the substance at this time. The passenger was also found to have marijuana hidden in the front of his pants as well. The driver was released with the vehicle and the passenger was transported to the VCCC. The powdery substance was collected and sent for testing. This passenger was booked into the VCCC for Possession of Marijuana, Possession of Paraphernalia, the active warrant out of Vanderburgh and another active warrant out of Posey County. | | KARGES, M. | LW 1720407 Intimidation | Buttrum, Nettie Ellen (W F, 50) VICTIM of Intimidation (C), at 2112 Haven Dr, Evansville, IN, between 00:01, 09/14/2017 and 00:12, 09/14/2017. Reported: 09/14/2017. Officers were dispatched to the above address in reference to a domestic violence in progress. Upon our arrival I spoke with the victim. The victim stated that her husband Stephen Buttrum had gone crazy and busted out the screen door window. The victim stated that Stephen then came to the bedroom with a butcher knife. Stephen then stuck the knife in the wall and pointed to the victim and stated "you will be lucky to wake up in the morning." The victim then ran out and called 911. Officers arrived and took Stephen into custody with out incident. Stephen was then transported to VCCC for intimidation. | | DELANO, J. A. |
