Reported: 09/17/2017. At 1204 hrs on 9/17/2017 I was dispatched to 2030-B Vann Park Circle in reference to a Theft Report. When I arrived, I spoke with the VI, Fred Duerson, who stated that his long time girlfriend had suddenly taken two rings that he had purchased for her but had not yet given to her. Recently it had been decided that Duerson and the OF would not marry due to Duerson's health issues and the ramifications of his health benefits if he were to get married. On 9/16/2017 Duerson invited the OF to his apartment around 1300 hrs and she left around midnight. This morning Duerson noticed both rings were now gone from the boxes that he kept them in. The OF had knowledge of the rings and where they were kept. According to Duerson, the OF made a comment to him about "since he wasn't going to marry her, he would not be getting the rings back." The rings were purchased approximately 3 months ago from Droste's Jewelry store. Duerson was given a case number and instructed to contact the Prosecutor's Office to further charges.		ROSS, K. R.
