As I got up, I could already hear yelling and when I got to the back I saw a black male on the floor yelling. The medical staff was all scattering away from the male. The male got up and started running and continued to yell. I yelled for him to stop and he looked back but kept running. I yelled for him to stop again and turned on my CEW. At this time, he stopped and told me to "call the police". He just kept yelling get the police here. He was transported to jail. |   | VANCLEAVE, J. T. |
