Reported: 10/14/2017.		PUGH, J. C.
	On October 14th, 2017 at approximately 0100hrs I, Officer J. Pugh, was dispatched to the area of Covert Ave. and Green River Rd. for a fight in progress. When I arrived both Brittany Molina and Matthew Jourdan were separated, but bickering at each other in the parking lot of Rick's Sports Bar.
	Brittany and Matthew both have temporary protective orders against each other. But, as of late they have been living together at Matthew's residence while Brittany moves from her old apartment to her new apartment. They both told me that they were planning to go on Monday and get the temporary protective orders dropped. Matthew had been letting Brittany drive one of his cars, tonight and got concerned when he was unable to reach her. He went looking for her and the car, and eventually found her at Rick's Sports Bar. An argument ensued which drew the attention of other patrons of the bar. Matthew took Brittany's car key and tried to leave. This upset some of the other patrons of the bar, and they caused a scene which was why I was dispatched.
	Both were given a case number for the invasion of privacy. Matthew stated that he would stay in a hotel tonight and would not attempt to contact Brittany until the temporary protective order is removed. Brittany was picked up by her daughter's grandmother and will be staying with her for the night.
