Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
Loss &gt;= $750 &lt;$50,000 Am	The reporter stated that he had been hearing water running toward the back of the duplex for about 2 days. He said that he thought it was rain water coming from the gutters because it had been raining. On the 8th he discovered that the outside faucet was turned on and that was the source of the running water noise. He stated that there was no reason for the faucet to be turned on. The faucet was not defective. He thinks that the water may have been turned on purposely in an attempt to "screw" with him. He said that he let a friend stay with him for a few days. He said that they had a falling out and he made him leave. The reporter said that he thinks this person may have did this to "get back" at him. The running faucet caused the basement of the house to flood and damaged the water heater and the furnaces as well as likely causing an enormous water bill. The reporter is trying to determine the legal name of this "friend." The reporter also stated that there have been numerous homeless people frequenting the area and an attempted break-in to the previously vancant unit next door.
