Reported: 10/21/2017. The VI is elderly and has been very sick for several months after a recent surgery. The OF often looks in and cares for the VI, due to her condition and lack of mobility. The VI had met the OF through her son and has known her for sometime. The VI states that she had been trying to get ahold of the OF all week, wondering if she would be able to help her with some errands. The VI made several attempts to contact the OF and was eventually able too yesterday. The OF told the VI that she had been in the hospital the past few days and would not be able to help her for awhile. The VI became suspicious and called her bank, Heritage Federal Credit Union, to see if any unauthorized activity had occurred. The bank advised the victim of two transactions that occurred on 10/14/17 and 10/15/17. On 10/14/17, the VI states that the OF used her card to make a purchase, or withdraw money from her account at the "Liquor Store" in the 1900 block of Covert Ave., in the amount of $100.00, plus fees. On 10/15/17, the OF used her bank card to make a purchase, or withdraw money from her account at the "Kwik Stop" in the 1600 block of Pollack Ave., in the amount of $200.00, plus fees. The VI advised that she has not given the OF permission to use her card and believes the OF had stole it during the times she was at her house and remembered her PIN number from previous trips the OF made with her to the bank. The VI states that the OF is the only one who has been helping her in such an intimate capacity. The VI isn't sure which exact amounts were taken out on which days. The VI states that the amounts could be the other way around at the above locations, but she knows it's $300.00, plus fees. Moreover, the VI does not remember the times in which the transactions had occurred. She has also told the bank to put a stop on her card.		PYLANT, R. E.
