Reported: 10/31/2017. I was dispatched to the above address in reference to a Family Dispute. On scene, I made contact with the suspect, later identified as B. Caulder, and the victim, later identified as A. Reed. Reed stated she and Caulder are in a relationship and have been staying at the above address together for the past month. Reed advised that Caulder has been verbally abusive to her all day and she "could not take the way he was talking to her anymore". I asked Reed if she wanted to leave and she stated she did. I then spoke to Caulder. Caulder initially denied knowing what was going on, but eventually admitted to arguing earlier in the day. Caulder stated everything was fine now and did not know why the police were called. I went back outside to tell Reed that she could get her belongings for over night, but would have to come back to move her the remainder of her stuff out of the room. Reed stated at this point that before she had called, she had been sitting on the bed with her hood up. Reed stated that she and Caulder had been throwing a pack of cigarettes at each other, but as she was sitting on the bed, she felt something hard hit her in the head. Reed admitted she did not see Caulder throw anything and did not know what had hit her. When asked where she was hit Reed pointed to the back of her head. I did not see any indication of injury at this time. Reed was allowed to gather her belongings and I stood by with her until her ride arrived. I gave Reed a the case # and told her the process for filing charges with the prosecutor's office. I also reminded Reed to call for a Stand-By in order to get the rest of her belongings.		CONDIFF, M. V.
