LW 1721987 Theft From Motor Vehicle < $750	Griffey-crenshaw, Lamar Warren (B M, 24) VICTIM of Theft From Motor Vehicle < $750 (C), at 1223 W Florida St, Evansville, IN, between 06:40, 10/03/2017 and 06:47, 10/03/2017. Reported: 10/03/2017. The victim stated, an unknown subject took the change from his console in his listed vehicle.	MINTO, P. J.
LW 1721986 Criminal Mischief [bm]	Advanced Auto Parts VICTIM of Criminal Mischief [bm] (C), at 2300 Covert Ave, Evansville, IN, between 06:00, 10/03/2017 and 06:08, 10/03/2017. Reported: 10/03/2017. Officers were dispatched to 2300 Covert Ave (Advanced Auto Parts) regarding a window being shattered in front of the building. Officers arrived and met with the delivery person who stated he was making a delivery and noticed the front glass pane shattered. Officer Smith made contact with an employee, D. Stephens, who arrived shortly after. Officer noticed a large single front glass pane shattered. The inner pane was not damaged, and entry was not made. There was not any objects found near the damaged glass.	BOND, T. J.
LW 1721990 Battery- Hff Domestic [am]	Vasquez, Chelsea Ryan (W F, 24) VICTIM of Battery- Hff Domestic [am] (C), at 1170 S Lombard Ave, Evansville, IN, between 07:10, 10/03/2017 and 07:28, 10/03/2017. Reported: 10/03/2017. The victim states that she and her live in boyfriend (OF) entered into a verbal argument over him being gone for two days. When the OF arrived home this morning, the victim said she could also tell he`s been out doing drugs and running around. Tired of the arguing, the OF agreed to leave and asked for the victim`s phone. The victim refused and told the OF to get out. The OF said he would, once he could use her phone to call a ride. The OF went to grab the phone out of the VI`s hand and she pulled the phone back. The victim states that`s when the OF grabbed her by the arms and started wrestling with her for the phone. They fell to the ground and the OF climbed on top of her. The victim yelled for him to get off, but he continued wrestling for the phone. That`s when the VI bit the OF under the upper left arm and started slapping him. The victim states that is when the OF got off of her and walked outside. The VI then told the OF she was calling police. The OF states that the argument was over him walking into the house with no shoes on and being gone for two days. The OF states when the victim told him to leave, he agreed and called for a ride. The OF states the victim heard a female`s voice on the other end, which is what caused her to attack him. The OF states that he struggled to get away from the VI, but was eventually able to and went outside to call police. The OF states he begged the next door neighbor to use his phone, in which the neighbor agreed. I did not observe any injuries to the VI. The OF sustained minor scratch marks to his neck and face, and a noticeable bite imprint to the back of his upper left arm. Both stated they did not want to pursue charges. Not knowing if the OF`s injuries were sustained from the victim defending herself, a custodial arrest was not made. I advised both subjects that a report would be made and gave them the case number. The OF collected his belongings and left.	PYLANT, R. E.

LW 1722046 Battery - Domestic - Presence Of Child <16	down the road. Jones, Mariah Renee (B F, 25) VICTIM of Battery - Domestic - Presence Of Child <16 (C), at 3801 Jackson Ave, Evansville, IN, between 18:00, 10/03/2017 and 18:03, 10/03/2017. Reported: 10/03/2017. Officer Porter and I were dispatched to 3801 Jackson Ave in reference to a domestic violence in progress. The victim, M. Jones, advised her brother punched her in the face over a cat. She stated he fled prior to officers arriving. We arrived and I spoke with M. Jones. She stated that she, her brother, and her two children live with their parents in the apartment. M. Jones stated that they originally had a cat in the apartment but had kicked it out due to it having fleas and there being children in the home. Today, the suspect grabbed the cat and brought it back in. M. Jones stated that because it had fleas, she then grabbed it and threw it outside. The suspect got upset with her and began arguing with her. He walked outside after the cat and M. Jones closed and locked the door on him. She eventually unlocked it and he punched her in the face. She said he hit her so hard it knocked her to the ground and she was having a hard time fighting back. She advised he hit her at least a couple dozen times all in the head. She said she saw her parents standing over her as the suspect continued hitting her. There was some severe swelling to the right side of her face, near her right eye, that progressively got worse as I spoke with her. She also complained of "lumps" on the side of her head, in her hairline. I also observed some red marks, possibly scratches, on the left side of her face near her ear. M. Jones advised that her two children and her father were present during the entire altercation. She said it started outside with the door incident and had spilled into the living room. I provided her with notes on how to apply for a protective order, how to pursue charges and how to contact DSV unit. I made the comment that my handwriting was poor and apologized for it. M. Jones said, "That's okay, I can't really see very well right now. Everything is a little blurry." I, along with Officer Porter advised M. Jones to keep an eye on her injury as she could potentially have a concussion. She said she would and advised she would go to the hospital if need be.	SEDORIS, S. C.
