Draws Or Uses Deadly Weapon	and 01:15, 11/09/2017. Reported: 11/09/2017. I was dispatched to Rick's Sport's Bar for a harassment in progress. I arrived on scene and found the female victim standing outside near the front entrance. The offender was not on scene. The female victim stated that she and a group of family members were sitting at a table inside the bar when a unknown subject approached them. The victim stated that the offender started rubbing on her son and his girlfriend chest. The female stated that she asked the offender to go away because they were trying to have a good time. The offender got upset and walked away towards the restroom. The offender returned from the restroom and walked over to the victim table again. The victim stated that she stood up and said "hell no" and that's when the offender pulled the pocket knife from his pocket. The offender then walked away and went back to the bar to finish his beverage. All witnesses inside the bar gave the same exact story. The victim, witnesses, nor the bartender knew the offender name. The bartender stated that the offender name was Rob or Bob Toliver. I could not find a Rob or Bob Toliver in RMS.		OAKLEY, J. A.

Listed IO, Mclean, called Police after getting into a verbal dispute with the residents of 3215 CLAREMONT AVE. These subjects live behind Mclean's late grandmother's home at 3310 AUSTIN AVE. The converted garage of 3310 AUSTIN AVE has been broken into repeatedly for the past three weeks. It cannot be secured due to the rotten wall around one of the windows that faces the alleys. The window cannot be closed. Mclean has found various items from the garage in a yard sale at 3215 CLAREMONT in the past. She believes other items have recently gone missing. I--Cpl E Keller--then attempted to speak to the residents of 3215 CLAREMONT in reference to this. As I did so, Mclean was yelling profanities at them from the alley. I told her twice to stop doing so as there was no need for it. I advised her that I was getting their side of the story and that I would then return to speak to her again. She began yelling a third time and I told her that, if she yelled once more, I would arrest her for Disorderly Conduct. She yelled, "Okay! Bye!" and walked to the front of 3310 AUSTIN AVE. I finished speaking to the residents of 3215 CLAREMONT and went to speak to Mclean some more and to see if a report needed to be taken. She and her van were both gone.		KELLER, E. K.

No victims listed. Officers were called to 627 Biltmore Way 3 times. On the last run the IO-S Vardaman was on scene still. She is the mother of IO-J Karn. She has been attempting to make contact with her son IO-J Karn. She's been told that she is not Karn's guardian and that Karn isn't wanting to speak with her. There have been several suicidal runs involving Karn lately and the caregiver said that she didn't want Karn upset again today. I have seen Karn a couple times over the past week and he seems fine, calls saying he is suicidal because he wants the police to come and talk to him. There is one caregiver that he said that he doesn't like but otherwise he has no complaints. Vardaman said that she is concerned for her son's welfare and that they are trying to turn Karn against her. I advised her to make contact with an attorney and get guardianship over her son so that she can access to his medical and be in charge of his living arrangements.		WILSON, M. R.

To Veh [bm]	VI reports when she came to work early this evening a W/M wearing dk pants and a dk hoodie was walking on the sidewalk. VI pulled in to park for work at listed address. The man started cursing at her saying she almost hit him. (The VI did not think she had and was mindful of where the man was as she pulled in.) He came toward her and threatened VI. She stood her ground and told him to go on. The man left cursing. VI reports a little while later the same man walked back past her window, looked in the window toward her and then did something to her car, as she heard a loud noise. VI went outside and found her passenger door dented and scratched. A large chunk of brick was on the ground next to her vehicle. The man was gone. VI states she did not get a good look at the man because his hood shadowed his face.
