	store through the main entrance. The OF shopped around for several minutes, selected some items, then approached the front check out area. The OF first made contact with Julia (RP). As Julia accepted the items from the OF, the OF pulled out a black semi-auto hand gun, pointed it at Julia, and demanded she open the register. Julia did as ordered and gave the OF all the money in the till. The OF then ordered her to open all the other registers and do the same. While Julia was doing as instructed, the OF stated to Julia, "hurry up, you're too slow, I'm going to kill you if you don't hurry." As Julia was making her way to the last register where Luanne (IO) was, she became to nervous and had difficulty opening the till. Karen then realized they were being robbed and assisted Julia in opening the register. Once the OF cleared out all the registers, he ordered Julia and Karen to the ground, then walked out the front entrance. Once outside, the OF walked East, along the North side of CVS.
LW 1726067 Auto Theft-other Vehicles	Hughes, Brittini Nichole (W F, 26) VICTIM of Auto Theft-other Vehicles (C), at 5322 N Kerth Ave, Evansville, IN, between 15:30, 11/23/2017 and 12:00, 11/25/2017. Reported: 11/25/2017. I was dispatched to the listed address, in reference to a counterfeit $5.00 bill. When I arrived on scene, I met with Elizabeth (IO), who was standing out front waiting for my arrival. Elizabeth advised that she was the one who had the $5.00 bill, but didn't know it was fake. Elizabeth stated she had went to Thornton's on Bellemeade, near Green River Rd., prior to coming to Dollar General and had purchased some items totaling $12.00, using her twenty. Elizabeth stated the clerk at Thornton's then gave her $8.00 in change back. When she stopped by Dollar General to purchase denture cleaner, she used the money Thornton's had given her. That was the only cash she had on her. Then the clerk at Dollar General told her the money was fake. When I spoke with Amanda (RP), she stated that they were able to recognize the bill was fake before any merchandise had been sold. Amanda added that Elizabeth did seem shocked when she learned the bill was fake. The fake $5.00 bill was later dropped into evidence.		PYLANT, R. E.

LW 1726072 Dog Bite	Kinard, Delaine Lee Claire (W F, 25) VICTIM of Dog Bite (C), at 1767 S Governor St/ridgeway Ave, Evansville, IN, between 14:30, 11/25/2017 and 14:46, 11/25/2017. Reported: 11/25/2017. While on patrol, I observed the involved other(1) and victim sitting on the curb at Governor/Ridgeway. The victim was upset and bleeding due to a dog attack that had just occurred. The victim, who is a USPS worker, stated she was walking north on Governor when two large dogs exited a nearby yard and attacked her. The involved other, who is partial owner of the dogs, was able to separate the dogs from the victim. The victim sustained possible bite marks to the back of her head and right ear. She was transported by AMR 1538 to Deaconess for treatment and given case number. A/C responded to the scene.		MEEKS, N. A.
LW 1726073 Theft- Shoplifting < $750	Ollies Bargain Outlet VICTIM of Theft- Shoplifting < $750 (C), at 620 E Diamond Ave, Evansville, IN, between 16:06, 11/24/2017 and 17:00, 11/24/2017. Reported: 11/25/2017. On 11/25/2107 at approximately 1348 hours, I, Officer R. Smith was dispatched to 620 E. Diamond Ave. in reference to a theft report. Upon arrival, I spoke with the reporter, who is also the manager of the business. The reporter stated that while observing video footage from an unrelated theft, she observed the offender come in the business with nothing in her possession. The reporter stated that once the offender entered the business, she grabbed a bag which belonged to the business from an empty/unoccupied terminal. The reporter stated that the offender then took the bag throughout the business and placed items in the bag. The reporter stated that the offender then took those same items and fraudulently returned those items at the customer service desk. The reporter stated that since the offender did not have a receipt for the items, it is company policy to give the consumer a gift card in the amount of the returned items. During this process, the business collects information from the consumer. The reporter was able to provide suspect information and plate information that the offender arrived in. The reporter stated that the offender was accompanied by an older white male and older white female. It is unknown if those individuals were involved with the theft.		SMITH, R. A.

Reported: 11/25/2017. Officers met with the victim of a theft. The victim stated that sometime three to four weeks ago (she doesn't remember the exact date; only knows that it was before Halloween) a male friend was at her house hanging out. The victim and the male were sitting in the living room, and the victim had her lock box out. The victim was putting jewelry inside, and the friend asked the victim about a particular ring. The victim stated that it was her wedding ring from when she was married. The friend asked if she would ever be willing to sell it, and the victim told the friend, "No, my daughter will inherit it". The victim stated that she put the lockbox back on the shelf in the kitchen, and the keys to the lock box were put on a snake cage in the living room. The victim stated that she then left the house to go pick up her daughter, and the friend stayed at her house while she was gone, to watch the victim's other child. The victim stated that she got her lockbox out today to place more property into it, and she realized that the wedding ring, another "fake" ring, and $160.00 in cash were missing. The victim stated that no one else has had access to her house nor the keys to the lockbox except for her friend that night. The victim wished to file charges.	WOLF, D. C.
