Reported: 10/31/2017. The VI called, advising that her son (OF), James, just busted in her front door and is refusing to leave. The VI also advised that she has a protective order against her son and wants him to leave immediately. When officers arrived on scene, the OF had already left. The VI stated that once her son made it inside, he begged her to let him take a shower. The VI refused, telling the OF that he was not welcome and he needed to leave. The OF told the VI that he was going to take a shower regardless and started toward the bathroom. The VI told the OF that she was calling police. Realizing the VI wasn't kidding, he then ran out the back. The VI stated that she didn't want to press charges. I tried encouraging the VI into filing charges and advised that if she didn't, the OF would continue to harass and manipulate her. The VI stated she understood, but it was her son, and she just wants him to leave and get help. I advised the VI that I was still going to do a report and if she wanted to press charges later, she could. Per RMS, the VI does have an active restraining order against the OF, PO# 82D061703PO1348.		PYLANT, R. E.
