Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
--------	-------------	---	---------

Officers met with the victim of a domestic battery in the 1700 block of Edson Ave. The victim is from Haiti, and does not speak english. Shortly after officers arrived, the victim's roommate (WI) showed up to the residence, and he was able to translate.

The witness stated that he lives with the victim and the victim's husband at this address. The witness told officers that he was in his room watching a movie when he heard the victim and her husband arguing. The witness came out of his room and into the kitchen where he saw the husband holding onto the victim's hair and had her pulled down towards the ground. The witness stated that he got between them and was able to separate them before both the victim and her husband ran out of the house. The witness left the house as well to make sure they weren't going to get into another altercation. The victim came back to the house and called 911.

The husband was GOA. The victim complained of pain to her head and left side of her neck. She had no visible signs of injury. The victim stated that she wanted to file charges, and she was given a case number. She was transported to St. Vincent by AMR 0041. She was advised, through translation with the witness, to file for a protective order.

LW 1728192	I noted damage to the kitchen door that had been kicked in as well as the window appeared to have been broken from the outside of the residence. When I looked at the window from the outside of the house, I noticed a large tire had been moved toward the window that was broken. As I walked through the house, I noticed multiple items of value that were throughout the house (video games systems, video games, tablets, and Christmas presents). None of these items had been taken or moved. I asked Weddle if there was anyone other than him who would have known about the weapons or where they were kept. Weddle advised he has friends who know where he normally keeps the guns. Weddle denied having any knowledge of any of those friends being upset with him. Weddle was given the case # for his records. Hairston, Steven Craig (B M, 37) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief To Veh [bm] (C), at 1015 Jefferson Ave, Evansville, IN, between 01:26, 12/24/2017 and 01:28, 12/24/2017.
