There are no suspects at this time. Juvenile (W F, 05) VICTIM of Chins Self Endangerment (C), at 1410 N Weinbach Ave, Evansville, IN, between 06:40, 12/29/2017 and 07:19, 12/29/2017. Reported: 12/29/2017. I, Officer Jones, was dispatched to Vogel School to check the welfare of a juvenile female (victim) on the playground. Dispatch advised that the female was without a coat and no parents around. Upon arriving I located the witness, who had the victim in her vehicle. The witness said she located the juvenile on the south side of the school knocking on a door asking for help. The witness was not the original caller but was getting ready to call when I arrived. The victim was shivering from the cold temperature. The outside temperature was in the lower 20's. The victim was dressed in sleep clothes no jacket or coat and her feet were bare. I moved the victim to my squad car. She could only give me her first name. She repeated most questions I asked her, leading me to believe she was autistic. Other than her first name I could only figure out that she had eaten pancakes for breakfast. I saw the offender walking around his house at 1410 N Weinbach Ave as if he was looking for someone. I drove the victim there and asked if he was looking for his daughter. He confirmed the victim was his daughter. He also confirmed that the victim does have autism. The offender said that she climbed out of a window. He said the victim did this about a year or two ago as well. He said that the victim attends Vogel School and loves the playground. He believes she missed not playing, on the playground, over Christmas break. He also said she ate breakfast at around 0640 hrs. The victim was released to him. He was advised that CPS may follow up with a visit.	JONES, C. L.

Reported: 12/29/2017. I was dispatched to the area of 4400 Washington Ave., in reference to a dog that had been chained outside to a stairwell. The complainant advised it was extremely cold and the dog had no water, or shelter. When I arrived on scene, I observed the following. The dog is a black and white pit bull. It was chained to the bottom of the stairwell at the Dealer Strong office building in the Five Oaks office complex, on the East side of the building. It had no shelter, food, or water and the dog was shivering, due it being extremely cold outside. I was eventually able to locate the owner, Della (OF). I knocked on her apartment door and she yelled for me to come in. When I walked in, I observed Della lying on the couch in her night clothes, watching TV. When I inquired about the dog and it's conditions, Della advised that she chains the dog there so he can get some time outside. Della stated he had only been out there for about 30 minutes, but I had no way to verify that. I advised Della that that was unacceptable in these conditions and that the dog was shivering. Della stated she would get up and bring the dog in. After stating such, Della continued to lie on the couch and watch TV. It wasn't until I told Della to get up and bring the dog in, that actually caused her to move. Once Della got dressed, she did as requested and collected the dog. I advised Della that a report on this will be submitted and Animal Control will be following up. Della stated she understood. Hernandez, Theresia Guadalupe (W F, 58) VICTIM of Residential Entry (C), at 4919 Old Boonville Hwy, Evansville, IN, between 08:30, 12/26/2017 and 10:45, 12/29/2017. LW 1728527 Traffic-accident Hit&run /prop [bm]	she fell to the ground. The vehicle left west on Riverside after the female was out of the vehicle. Morris assisted the female and they returned to the store. I spoke to the female, Mariah Jennings. Jennings stated she was in the car with the suspect, John Porter, south on Kentucky Ave. As the vehicle came to Riverside, Jennings said Porter pushed her out of the passenger side and then left. Jennings had a complaint of pain to her left side, but refused AMR or further medical treatment. I asked Jennings if Porter lived with her and she said no. She did state that they were previously living together, however they had parted ways approximately 6 months ago. We transported Jennings home to 1113 Washington Ave. Porter called into dispatch wanting to speak with officers. After we dropped Jennings off at home, we met Porter near CVS on Washington Ave. Porter stated Jennings was with him at his residence at 1909-C Plantation Ct. and got into an argument. Jennings wanted to go home and Porter said he would take her. En route to 1113 Washington Ave. Jennings told Porter to go to the gas station. Porter started toward the gas station and was south on Kentucky Ave. As they were approaching Riverside Dr., Porter said Jennings opened the passenger side door and jumped out and fell to the ground. He said Jennings wanted back in the car and he said no and left. Jennings 5 year old daughter was in the vehicle and Porter said he dropped her off at 1113 Washington Ave. with the grandmother. Goodridge, Drew Michael (W M, 25) VICTIM of Traffic-accident Hit&run /prop [bm] (C), at 505 W Berkeley Ave, Evansville, IN, between 00:40, 12/30/2017 and 00:46, 12/30/2017. Reported: 12/30/2017. Officers were dispatched to 505 Berkley Ave for a hit and run report. Officers spoke to the victim and witness. The victim stated he had just arrived home and was walking into his house. He saw a car backing out of the drive of 508 Berkley Ave. He said the car backed across the street and hit his truck. The driver of the car started to drive away. The victim and witness walked out to the street and the driver stopped. The driver, described as a white male, got out and said he was sorry. He gave the witness his insurance card and said he would pay for the truck. She said he smelled of alcohol. She said they were going to call the police. The driver got back into the car and sped away. The offenders car was described as a white Lexus and has rear end damage. The victims truck was hit in the passengers bed side. The bed was smashed in front of the rear tire. The victim was given a case number.	LOWE, J. W.

A perimeter was set up, but K9 was unable to locate. Cole, Nikki-rain Blume (B F, 22) VICTIM of Battery-dv - Family/household Rude/insolent [am] (C), at 758 S Governor St, Evansville, IN, between 00:00, 12/30/2017 and 00:50, 12/30/2017. Reported: 12/30/2017. We were dispatched to 758 S Governor in reference to a family dispute. The caller, Nikki Cole, said her brother, John Cole, was causing problems and wanted him to leave for the night. Nikki said John was not being violent. We arrived on scene and Nikki was outside waiting for us. Nikki said John was intoxicated and wanted him to leave and that we needed to make him go. I asked Nikki if John lived here and she said yes. I explained to her that we could not force John to leave. Nikki then said she would get us to make him leave and press charges on him. I asked Nikki what she wanted to press charges on him for. She said they were outside arguing and he choked her. I did not see any signs of visible injury and she did not complain of any pain.	HARRINGTON, M.
LW 1728529 Criminal Mischief [bm]	John had come outside during this incident. We could smell a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from him. John said they were arguing and that was it. He denied putting his hands on her. When asked for his identification, John was uncooperative at first and did not want to tell us his name or give us his ID. We explained to him that we could take him to jail for failure to identify. We finally decided to give us his ID Card. They both went inside after I got their information and we told Nikki to call back if things escalated. Lipson, Sammarvaie Ariene (B F, 21) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief [bm] (C), at 2511 Sunburst Blvd, Evansville, IN, between 21:30, 12/29/2017 and 21:48, 12/29/2017. Reported: 12/30/2017. Officers were dispatched to 2511 Sunburst Blvd reference a possible residential burglary. When Officers arrived the screen on the front window had been busted but it did not appear that anyone would have been able to make entry. The resident, Lipson, advised dispatch after we arrived that she was now at another location and wished to speak with us. When we made contact she advised us that she had found the damage to her apartment around 2130 hours and had not been inside yet. She stated that unknown individuals had been sitting outside her house in a silver/gold fullsize four door car waiting for her throughout the day. She also told us that since this had happened she received a call from a number she did not know. When she answered the male on the phone stated that the other Victim(Robinson) needed to return their Rolex or they would kill her and everyone that was important to her. Detective M. Ward was contacted about the run.	GREEN, R. E.
