LW 1728522 Battery- Hff Domestic [am]	Century. I provided the victim with a case number. Jennings, Mariah Twana (B F, 22) VICTIM of Battery- Hff Domestic [am] (C), at 999 E Riverside Dr/s Kentucky Ave, Evansville, IN, between 23:30, 12/29/2017 and 23:44, 12/29/2017. Reported: 12/30/2017. We were dispatched to Riverside and Kentucky in reference to a domestic violence report. The victim called and stated her ex-boyfriend pushed her out of the vehicle at this location and left. Upon arrival we were encountered by a witness, Rachel Morris. Morris said she works at Circle K on Kentucky Ave. and was getting ready to go home. She observed a purple passenger car driving erratic south on Kentucky approaching Riverside. She said the passenger side door was open as the vehicle was coming up to Riverside. She thought it might be kids messing around. Morris stated she saw the driver push the passenger out of the vehicle and she fell to the ground. The vehicle left west on Riverside after the female was out of the vehicle. Morris assisted the female and they returned to the store. I spoke to the female, Mariah Jennings. Jennings stated she was in the car with the suspect, John Porter, south on Kentucky Ave. As the vehicle came to Riverside, Jennings said Porter pushed her out of the passenger side and then left. Jennings had a complaint of pain to her left side, but refused AMR or further medical treatment. I asked Jennings if Porter lived with her and she said no. She did state that they were previously living together, however they had parted ways approximately 6 months ago. We transported Jennings home to 1113 Washington Ave. Porter called into dispatch wanting to speak with officers. After we dropped Jennings off at home, we met Porter near CVS on Washington Ave. Porter stated Jennings was with him at his residence at 1909-C Plantation Ct. and got into an argument. Jennings wanted to go home and Porter said he would take her. En route to 1113 Washington Ave. Jennings told Porter to go to the gas station. Porter started toward the gas station and was south on Kentucky Ave. As they were approaching Riverside Dr., Porter said Jennings opened the passenger side door and jumped out and fell to the ground. He said Jennings wanted back in the car and he said no and left. Jennings 5 year old daughter was in the vehicle and Porter said he dropped her off at 1113 Washington Ave. with the grandmother.		HARRINGTON, M.

LW 1728525 Shots Fired	The offenders car was described as a white Lexus and has rear end damage. The victims truck was hit in the passengers bed side. The bed was smashed in front of the rear tire. The victim was given a case number.	Shots Fired (C), at 199 E Louisiana St/n Heidelbach Ave, Evansville, IN, between 00:03, 12/30/2017 and 00:05, 12/30/2017. Reported: 12/30/2017. No victims listed.	PUGH, J. C.
LW 1728526 Battery-dv - Family/household Rude/insolent [am]	On December 30th, 2017 at approximately 0005hrs, I, Officer J. Pugh, was arriving on scene for a fight in progress at 120 E. Louisiana. As I arrived there was a large crowd actively fighting in the intersection of Louisiana / Heidelbach. I called for more officers to arrive with pepper ball launchers to disperse the crowd. At that point a black male, wearing a yellow and black hoodie, and black pants, brandished a silver looking handgun and fired one shot into the air, roughly thirty feet in front of my patrol car. As I began to exit the car, the male took off running east on Louisiana. A perimeter was set up, but K9 was unable to locate.	Cole, Nikki-rain Blume (B F, 22) VICTIM of Battery-dv - Family/household Rude/insolent [am] (C), at 758 S Governor St, Evansville, IN, between 00:00, 12/30/2017 and 00:50, 12/30/2017. Reported: 12/30/2017.	HARRINGTON, M.
LW 1728529 Criminal Mischief [bm]	We were dispatched to 758 S Governor in reference to a family dispute. The caller, Nikki Cole, said her brother, John Cole, was causing problems and wanted him to leave for the night. Nikki said John was not being violent. We arrived on scene and Nikki was outside waiting for us. Nikki said John was intoxicated and wanted him to leave and that we needed to make him go. I asked Nikki if John lived here and she said yes. I explained to her that we could not force John to leave. Nikki then said she would get us to make him leave and press charges on him. I asked Nikki what she wanted to press charges on him for. She said they were outside arguing and he choked her. I did not see any signs of visible injury and she did not complain of any pain. John had come outside during this incident. We could smell a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from him. John said they were arguing and that was it. He denied putting his hands on her. When asked for his identification, John was uncooperative at first and did not want to tell us his name or give us his ID. We explained to him that we could take him to jail for failure to identify. We finally decided to give us his ID Card. They both went inside after I got their information and we told Nikki to call back if things escalated.	Lipson, Sammarvaie Ariene (B F, 21) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief [bm] (C), at 2511 Sunburst Blvd, Evansville, IN, between 21:30, 12/29/2017 and 21:48, 12/29/2017. Reported: 12/30/2017.	GREEN, R. E.
Officers were dispatched to 2511 Sunburst Blvd reference a possible residential burglary. When Officers arrived the screen on the front window had been busted but it did not appear that anyone would have been able to make entry. The resident, Lipson, advised dispatch after we arrived that she was now at another location and wished to speak with us. When we made contact she advised us that she had found the damage to her apartment around 2130 hours and had not been inside yet. She stated that unknown individuals had been sitting outside her house in a silver/gold fullsize four door car waiting for her throughout the day. She also told us that since this had happened she received a call from a number she did not know. When she answered the male on the phone stated that the other Victim(Robinson) needed to return their Rolex or they would kill her and everyone that was important to her. Detective M. Ward was contacted about the run.

Foreman continued that Lewis began choking her making it hard for her to breathe to the point where she thought she was going to pass out. Foreman stated Lewis noticed someone with a phone calling 9-1-1, and let go of her. Foreman stated Lewis then left out the front door telling her that if she called the police, she wouldn't be walking the street for long. Foreman denied medical treatment and was given a case # for her records and told the process for getting a copy of the report, following through with the prosecutor's office, and obtaining a protective order. Wheeler, Tina Marie (W F, 41) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief [bm] (A), at 1136 Loft Cv, Evansville, IN, between 23:15, 12/30/2017 and 23:18, 12/30/2017. Reported: 12/30/2017. I was dispatched to the above address in reference to a Residential Burglary in Progress. On scene, I spoke to the victim (later identified as T. Wheeler). Wheeler stated she recently moved into the above address two months ago. Wheeler stated this evening, she was taking down Christmas decorations when she heard someone open the front storm door and then "jiggle" the door knob. Wheeler continued that her dogs began barking and the jiggling stopped. Wheeler went to the living room to check on her nephew who was asleep on the couch, then she heard someone attempting to open the rear sliding glass door. Wheeler advised the suspect(s) were able to get the door to move, but could not get it open because of a bar that was paced in the frame. Wheeler stated she screamed for her husband to get the dogs, and the suspects then fled. I checked the sliding glass door and fenced in patio area and noticed the wooden gate to the fence had been damaged. It appeared the someone attempted to pull the gate open, forcing it to pull away from the fence at the hinge. I also noted that two fence panels had been broken. Wheeler's husband verified that the damage to the gate was new. Wheeler was given the case # and told the process for getting a copy of the report to turn in to her landlord. No suspect information was available at the time of this report.	CONDIFF, M. V.
