LW 1727165 Burglary - Attempted	the money and she stated she would need to get the manager. The manager immediately knew it was fake. The subjects decided they didn't want to stick around any longer and left without stopping to pick up the order at the 2nd window. The males were in a gold colored car. License 715LBS. Plate does not return. There is video at the store but manager was unable to retrieve it at this time. Hart, Nickolette Virginia (W F, 55) VICTIM of Burglary - Attempted (C), at 1619 E Indiana St, Evansville, IN, between 00:00, 10/23/2017 and 13:36, 12/10/2017. Reported: 12/10/2017. The victim is the property owner. She lives out of town and had been renting the house to her daughter. Her daughter has since left. The victim stated that she came to town with the intention of checking on the house so that she could get power turned on to prevent the pipes from freezing. She said that when she arrived she found that the side door on the west side of the house had been kicked in. The door was still in place and it didn't appear that entry had been made. The door was however heavily damaged. She requested a report for insurance purposes and asked for extra patrol on the house.		CLARK, S. R.
LW 1727168 Fc-fraud-home Improvement [bm]	Underwood, Betty S. Reported: 12/10/2017. Victim stated the suspect knocked on her door and advised he and his co-workers had extra asphalt from a previous job and noticed her drive was in need of repair. He quoted her a price of $68.00 for the patch work. The victim agreed and after filling 3 small holes he attempted to charge her $700. She stated she did not have that kind of money and he told her $400.00 which she paid reluctantly. Shortly after writing the check the suspect took the check to ONB and immediately cashed it. The victim stated she was scared not to pay him after he said the work was complete. She said he misrepresented himself in what was to be repaired and the amount of money to be charged. The actual amount of asphalt used appeared to be less than $68.00 worth of material. She did state the suspect was driving an older white minivan with a rear hatch and that is where he retrieved the asphalt from. She notified her son of what had happened and they attempted to stop payment on the check but it was already too late. The check showed it was cashed at 4:14 pm shortly after the check was written by the victim.		JEWELL, B. E.

V1 stated she received a call from V2 saying the offender was threatening to kill her and V3 by wrecking the car. When the offender eventually arrived back at V1`s house, the offender threatened to kill her again. V1 was concerned and believed the offender was under the influence of a narcotic due to her demeanor. V1 had recordings of the phone conversation where the offender was making the threats. V1 was given the case number and advised to forward that to her DCS case worker.		HASTINGS, M. J.
LW 1727190 Incident Rpt Misc	Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 4201 Munsee Trl, Evansville, IN, between 19:00, 12/10/2017 and 20:41, 12/10/2017. Reported: 12/10/2017. No victims listed.  Officer was called out to Ms Stock`s apartment in regards to loud music. This time the complaint was about the apartment above her`s, apartment G.  I made a point of turning off my car lights prior to turning onto Mnsee Trail and parking at the first apartment building and walked down to 4201-H. Dispatch had also sent me on this run via MCT so that it couldn`t be heard over a scanner.		WILSON, M. R.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1727191	Once I got to Ms Stock`s apartment I first stood out on her porch to listen for any loud noise. I heard none after a few minutes and then knocked on her door. Ms Stock answered and had me come in to listen. I could faintly hear the tv in the apartment above. It was nothing loud and we actually had to stand there quietly to be able to barely hear the tv. Ms Stock a few times said "see, hear it". I told her that I heard no loud noises. Ms Stock insisted that the previous night it was so loud that it about burst her ear drums. I asked why she hadn`t called then. She said that she had but was too tired to talk with the police. Ms Stock said that she`s even afraid that her neighbor above her might be the type to shoot her. She said that her neighbor in Apt G has turned his music up incredibly loud and then left for work. I again asked why she hadn`t called the police then, knowing that there wouldn`t be anyone upstairs to turn it down when we would have arrived. Ms Stock also told me that she believes that her neighbors watch out their balconies, that face Green River Rd, looking for police cars so that they know when to turn off their music or televisions. Ms Stock again became upset with me "not believing her" and that nobody wants to help her. I told her that we can`t do anything if when we are on scene we can`t find any evidence of her complaints.		KINGSTON, A. B.

Reported: 12/10/2017. Officers were dispatched to 1200 E riverside in reference to a hit and run report. Upon our arrival we spoke with the victim. The victim stated that a light blue ford ranger had hit him at the intersection of Fulton and Franklin. The victim stated that after the accident he stopped but the other vehicle left. The victim then left and called a short time later for a hit and run report. The victims vehicle had a dent and scratch near the passenger side rear wheel well. The victim was given a case number for the incident.		DELANO, J. A.
LW 1727201 Resist Law Enforcement	Society VICTIM of Resist Law Enforcement (C), at 2500 N First Ave, Evansville, IN, between 01:01, 12/11/2017 and 01:02, 12/11/2017. Reported: 12/11/2017. Officers were in the area of Walmart and were approached about a suspicious vehicle in the lot. The reporter stated that they were sitting in the lot, and noticed the vehicle pull up twice in a short amount of time with different people in it. Officers approached the vehicle. The driver would not comply with officers orders and fled. Officers chased the subject down First Ave. and lost him at Uhlhorn. The driver had an active felony warrant.		OAKLEY, J. A.
LW 1727199 Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report	Burge, Davida Lee (B F, 24) VICTIM of Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report (C), at 1308 E Indiana St, Evansville, IN, between 23:30, 12/10/2017 and 23:45, 12/10/2017. Reported: 12/11/2017. Officers were dispatched to the above address in reference to a Domestic Violence in Progress. On scene, we spoke with the suspect, later identified as N. Spinks. Spinks told officers he and his girlfriend D. Burge (Victim # 1) had been drinking earlier in the evening at Lamasco Bar. Spinks continued that after arriving home, Burge became upset about Spinks flirting with a girl at the bar. Spinks stated he and Burge began arguing over Burge`s car keys and she became aggressive. Spinks stated he left the residence and called 9-1-1. Spinks was not noted for any marks nor did he complain of pain. Burge stated that she and Spinks had been at Lamasco and she did become upset that he was talking to a girl there. Burge stated the two were arguing in the car on the way home and then once at the residence, Spinks would not come inside the house. Burge stated she asked Spinks for her car key because she knew he had been drinking and had a suspended license. Burge stated when Spinks refused to give her the keys and when she tried to grab them from him, the two began "wrestling" for them. Burge concluded that Spinks was able to get away from her and she last saw him driving west on Illinois then south on Harlan. When asked about the car, Spinks denied having any knowledge where it was, however it was located in the alley just south of the address which is the direction that Burge stated she last saw Spinks driving. Burge told me she did not want to do anything about the car or the "wrestling". Burge decided to leave for the evening. Both Sinks and Burge were given the case # and told the process for filing charges with the Prosecutor`s Office.		CONDIFF, M. V.
