Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1727223 Burglary Of A Dwelling	Hermilus, Nelson Max (B M, 30) VICTIM of Burglary Of A Dwelling (C), at 1425 Savannah Dr, Evansville, IN, between 01:20, 12/11/2017 and 10:57, 12/11/2017. Reported: 12/11/2017. I was dispatched to the listed address for a burglary report that occurred through the night. When I arrived on scene, I spoke with the victim, Nelson. Nelson stated that he came home last night around 0100 hrs., grabbed a few items, then went to stay the night with his sister. Nelson advised this took about twenty minutes. When he returned this morning, he noticed that someone had threw something through his window and his apartment had been ransacked. A closer inspection revealed that an unknown suspect(s) had stolen his vehicle rims, TV, laptop computer, clothes, and several shoes. Nelson has no idea who it could have been. Crime scene was called to process the scene. Moreover, in front of the apartment was a set of tire tracks, appearing as if someone had driven up to the apartment to load the stolen items. Considering the weight and bulk of the items stolen, the OF would have to have a large vehicle nearby. Secondly, the OF had thrown a chunk of landscaping brick through the front window, but only as a move to further harass, annoy, or aggravate the victim. Reason being, the hole is too small, about 3", and out of place effectively unlock the window. Anyone who would reach through the hole, runs a serious risk of being cut. The VI also had a stick in the window, to prevent someone from coming in. The door did not appear to be forced either.		PYLANT, R. E.
