| LW 1800207 | I was dispatched to 1030 W. Franklin St., apt. 508, in reference to a possible fight in progress. I arrived and was let in the building by the female that called 911 to report the fight. She told me there has been a lot of yelling and screaming in apartment 508, but did not want to be involved. I took the elevator to the fifth floor, and could hear yelling as I exited the elevator. I located apartment 508 where the yelling was coming from. The door was open to the apartment, and I observed Victim #1/suspect #1, Sylvia Goodwill, holding a small lamp in her hand, and victim #2/suspect #2, Earnest Butler, physically holding Goodwill back away from him. I yelled at both to stop, and they complied. It was obvious both were intoxicated because I could smell the odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from their mouths, and their speech was slurred. I also noticed a 30 Pack of Hamms Beer open, and several cans missing. Both admitted to drinking also. Goodwill said Butler does not live there, and they are friends. She said she just wanted him to leave. Goodwill and Butler both said they did not want to file charges, and said they would not cooperate. Butler agreed to leave, and not come back. I advised both of them I was taking a report in reference to the incident. | | SMITH, K. E. |
