Reportedly, Suspect was served with the papers for the Order yesterday. Since then, Suspect has called and texted Ms Rogers multiple times. She filed a Police report early this morning for the calls and texts. (See case #18-00719.) Later this morning, she walked from her home to the store and, when she returned, there was a cardboard box with drug paraphernalia (broken syringe; "one-hitter" pipe, etc.) on her front lawn. This box was not present when she left. Ms Rogers believes that Suspect tossed the box onto her lawn to get her in trouble. She did not actually see Suspect do this, however. Ms Rogers was advised to dispose of the box. She was provided with this case number and the phone number for the Vanderburgh County Prosecutor`s Office. | | KELLER, E. K. |

Upon arriving, officers met with the victim who told officers that the suspect has been babysitting her children during the day on January 10th. The victim stated she arrived back home and had put her wallet on the kitchen table when the suspect asked for a ride home. When the victim and suspect went outside to the car, the suspect mentioned that she had forgotten something inside of the home and went to retrieve it. The suspect went inside the home for a prolonged period of time while the victim waited for her in the car. The suspect came back outside and was taken back to her home by the victim. The victim came back home at approximately 1830 and found her wallet on the kitchen floor without the $120.00 she had in it previously. The victim saw the suspect carrying a bunch of groceries from the Virginia Street Food Mart knowing that the suspect does have money. The victim went to the Virginia Street Food Mart and asked to see the surveillance tapes, which shows the suspect spending a $100.00 bill. The victim was advised to keep the video for her records. The victim was given a case number and was advised to visit the Prosecutors Office to file for charges. | | |
